

Obamacare And 12 Senate Seats That Could Go Republican

An interesting read if you want to know just what this President's policies may very well going to cost his own party. What has really change sentiment? Obamacare and a slow revelation of the mis-management and chicanery of the President and this administration.

A Look at Brothel Politics, The Church and First Things.

The law's unpopularity is growing. Meanwhile the President is doing what he can to shore up support for the program amongst his staunchest supporters who up until now never asked a critical question about the program or anything the President has done. But some may be showing signs of wavering now as the new reduced coverage policies Obamacare implements and in many cases, the concomitant higher prices are known... in the reduced size of their take home pay. The Corporations, and insurance companies who drive and wrote Obamacare are going to make a mint because Obamacare barely touches their profits and does little to scale back the rising cost of care. He sold the nation a used car and now is trying to make sure we are stuck with it.

Economics, counting, doing the math getting the facts - smart people do that. Dumb people let propaganda, skin color, political party and emotions make their decision for them. In short they want deceit, not the truth. They want their political buttons pushed, not turn on their brains.

Would it not be nice if Americans of all races, parties and background would develop some informed (as in acquire INFORMation first) opinions instead of political reflex's based on race, class or political party? If we had that going on here in America, we might have health care that everyone can live with. I am not just talking about Obamacare, but on a whole range of issues that stem back all the way to the Clinton Administration. But in America, especially in certain quarters and especially with this President, the brain has gone out with the political bathwater and all's you have is a political epileptic who jerks at the should of the political bell (MSNBC says jerk left... Fox says jerk right) It's little more than monkey see, and monkey do. And the Church? It is exactly like the world because most has no discernment that does not come out of a political party caucus. They talk a good game, and more and more are simply walking the paths of sulfur. Of course there are many good souls who are not that way but they are in the minority. The kingdom striver's (striving to enter by the straight gate)... there are just not that many of them.

The Presidents political hacks are out there still trying to sell this used car, with three wheels and a blown engine to the American people at full sticker price. Places like Bloomberg who never missed an opportunity to praise Obama, cheer-lead his disastrous economic policies (disastrous for working people, but not for rich men like Boomberg) and push any administration spin no matter how ridiculous on its pages to give the President the political capital he needs to keep the dollars flowing to the rich and powerful. They are very busy trying to put 'lipstick on the pig' while the Presidents Poll numbers continue to sink. Listen, as I have said before, there is a lot to like about Obamacare and some of the things the President has managed to accomplish there really is good, but there is much more that just stinks. When millions of people are paying more for less and it effects the care they get - shake, rattle or dice it anyway you want to, you have a serious problem.

The sad part is that Bloomberg and other economic publications (I don't want to just pick on one) do have some of the best economic reporting there is, but the good stuff is all for corporate clients who can pay top dollar. The plebians (working people) are given Obama friendly political spin and large doses of disinformation that assists Bloomberg in his money making enterprises and bolsters his political fortunes with America's new Sodom pushing President. When I want economic news, I want news, not political spin and Bloomberg is fast becoming the National Enquirer and digital Pornography of economic publications.

Well, old Mike Bloomberg is according to my most well informed informants is filling lots of pockets to push much of the Presidents agenda all very secretly. Both are pushing three main things - Gun control, Gay Marriage and Global Warming.

They will do all they can to tell you that your smaller check and lower scope of health care are merely illusions. Don't bother to read the policy or count your money at payday. Listen to the them and be sure to vote democrat in 2014.

I know this sounds like a diatrbe against the President. It really isn't. The Presidents greatest success is also his biggest failure. He has been by far the most successful political money raiser in US history. That's why he is President, he knew how to wow the masses with baloney and promise them all but the White House kitchen sink to the powerful. Anyone who knows anything about Washington and our elections will tell you that money is by far the most important aspect of political campaigns. It isn't the only one (looks, speaking ability, photogenic likability factor, personal history, key endorsements from power centers, ability to program election machines also count), but money is the most important. If you don't have money, you will never hold office in Washington at any level. But those who give money want something for their dollars and those deals are almost always cut in secret and are never revealed to the people. That is why the Obama of 2008 and the Obama of 2014 are two different creatures...and the polls clearly reflect it. He has been by far the most secretive President in US history, with the possible exception of Nixon, who did not persecute nearly the number of Whistleblowers (those who expose crime in government) that Obama has. The more money in your coffers, the more promises you have to keep. He made all kinds of promises. Many to the people and even more to his donors. So this is not so much an indictment of the President as it is one of the entire political system (of which he is now head) which now resembles a brothel, a whorehouse or a mafia shakedown racket where bribes, blackmail and the threat of murder are more and more the political tools in Washington to get things done. Why is Washington broken? Have you ever heard of anything good coming from the use of such tools? Yea... exactly. You're never going to get anything from that kind of toilet but a stink.

This is why it isn't really going to matter much who wins the whorehouse in 2016. Not much. The only issues that will change will be the ones that are not political issues talked about... where major contracts and tons of money go, will we attack Iran or start a major profitable military offensive in west or even East Africa. Is Lockheed going to get the contract for that new spy satellite or will it be someone else? Put your money in the whore's purse and we'll see who gets to 'get down' first. You will get a two massive multi-million dollar marketing campaigns also known as political campaigns and when all is said and done, hardly anything will really change. Why not? Because the guys who are paying the bills for Brand A are also paying the bills for Brand B. They have rigged up the game leaving you with that political epilepsy I mentioned earlier.

How did the prophets describe the last days Military and economic powerhouse?

He called it a Harlot (whore) and not one 'Christian' in 1000 understands this. Why not? They have been drinking. They are in a drunken stupor and don't even know it.

And there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters: With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication. So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns. And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication: And upon her forehead was a name written,

MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration. And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns. The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is. And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth. And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space. And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition. And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast. These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast. These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful. And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues. And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire. For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled. And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth. - Revelation 17

Brothers, Know this: most folks don't want to deal with this. You can visit a hundred patriotic Christian sites who will never link up this prophecy with our times. Why not? In most cases, they have been drinking. What have they been drinking? The wine of Babylon's fornications.

It's the dead of night, Joe drank three whole bottles of Babylonian tequila and got behind the wheel. He is on his way home. The road was pitch black and Joe was trashed. But Joe did not make it. Joe passed out on the Freeway and was killed. The cops who recovered the body only said, "Another drunk driver who never got home".

This is a great metaphor for the spiritual journey so many Americans are on right now. They have been slurping up the Harlots abominations and don't even realize it. They say they are on their way to heaven, but they are going to be killed on they way. Why? They are drunken with the wine of the Harlots abominations. They can't see and couldn't react to their surroundings even if they wanted to. Instead of carrying a lamp full of oil in the last days as Christ commanded, they carry a bottle full of Babylon's finest Merlot and are finishing off their second bottle of her chardonnay... with an empty bottle of Cabernet on the passenger seat they finished an hour ago, swerving across all four lanes...

In America, you can see the souls of men being sold off into the worlds largest prison population (by far) into what can be called US labor/prison camps and very few Christians will possibly link this up with Revelation 18:3, where the souls of men are a new product of the system. The world that is used for Sorceries describing Baylons method of deceit (revelation 18:23) on the earth? That greek word is

far-mak-i'-ah

From G5332; medication (“pharmacy”), that is, (by extension) magic (literal or figurative): - sorcery, witchcraft.

Do we have drugs that are designed to effect the brain and cognition? How many people are on them? They are the most prescribed drugs in America. Not even the kids are exemt from the devils potions.

The Babylon-aholics don't want to hear these things, they want another swig of that grog that helps keep them blind, deaf and dumb, miserable, spiritually impoverished to the times and naked the devils wiles... scrounging around for the car keys on their way to a bottle assisted suicide. Prophecies are staring them in the face and they do not see and do not want to see. They want that Babylonian Grog.

The Hook Of Hades

American Christians want to get rich and be financially secure in these times. That is what they want. They work hard, very hard for the money. The Spirit of mammon guides them and they imbibe a steady diet of satanic brew from the vineyards of Babylon. What is the real problem? They won't put God first. They'll get around to serving God, once they get all the money to feel secure, or when they retire, or when they get that promotion. They have a long checklist of things that come first... after Christ. I'll serve Christ after I...

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. (Matt - 6:33)

Christ is giving us all a very good rule to live by. You want to be secure? Put God first. I mean and he means really first. But do you know why so many won't do that. It is going to require faith. Faith to really trust God to lead, guide and direct you. And here is where we get to the root of the matter. Unbelief. They don't really believe that God is going to take care of them, at least not in the way they want or are accustomed to. So what you wind up with is a Lukewarm Christian. One who does not love his Lord nor does he really believe him. Christ is not first, their personal financial security is. Entering the kingdom is not first, their pleasures and comforts are. Their paycheck is tops with them. This is how the devil hooks up with most American Christians. Materialism, Careerism and Pleasurism. They are the pleasant looking hooks of hades.

Now brothers, nothing is wrong with career or material things or even having some fun as long as it is not first and acquiring those things are in the way of your walk. But once they takeover and take a higher place than your walk, they become the grapes of the Babylonian wine. Once they ferment in the soul, a man begins to support and love every abomination under the sun to protect their political class, race, bank account, standard of living, jobs, etc. Then you have drunken masses screaming for more abominations to keep themselves comfortable. "I don't care about Sodomy in our Churches, just give me my free healthcare! I don't care about justice for the poor, just give me my legal fee or just keep the darkies off my street." "I don't care about Persecuted Christians being killed by Islamists who are getting US tax dollars and arms. Just keep the NFL on DirectTV and you can kill 'em all up, ok, nuff about dat... shhhh the Cowboy game is gettin' ready to start...." So is the mentality of large swaths of nominal American Christians - they don't care. Abominations result when the Harlots vintage is imbibed. A lot of them have already passed out and made a carwreck of their faith. If they don't die in a car wreck, they will die from alcoholic poisoning from Harlot's abominable wine.

I wish I could tell you that things are going to get better for Western particularly American Christians and that there is one day going to be a mass movement towards repentance and going back do doing the first things of Christ. I don't see that anywhere in the scriptures that this is going to be the case. Though I think it may very well happen in places and in institutions that some Protestants would never expect and start to even call the works of God the works of the devil... while they swig that Babylonian grog. What I read in the prophecies of the Bible is that things are going to get so bad (and are) that God is going to lead, direct and otherwise encourage his people to get out of the system. I think any honest soul who seeks God on this issue will be shown just what God requires of him personally. Why is that? Look at the system as the only visible well in a vast hot desert. It's like an oasis. Satan knows how to poison the well. If you want X, you have to buy Y as well. If you want Strong Labor, you have to support Sodomy, if you want to protect your business, you have to accept trillion dollar wars as well. If you want to watch the Discovery channel or TBN, you have to pay for the Gay channel as well. The wells become little more than honeypots to lure you into accepting something that God hates by tempting you with something you want. How do you avoid a poisoned well? Don't be lured with the water until you take a good look at that dead animal carcass deep down inside the well that the salesman was trying to hide from you. Its poisoned water that gives cholera to all who drink from it. So you want Spiritual Cholera? Then drink up. You want to live? Move along.

But you have to ask God for what he wants you to do in these times. Don't ask if you are not willing to do. For many of you, it's going to mean leaving jobs that may pay well but are evil (fraud, thefts, lies and other criminality that goes with so many corporate and government jobs today). Then you have to step out... in faith. It won't be easy. It was not easy on Abraham when he got up and went where to a place that God did not reveal to him. Abraham had to leave the 'Babylonian Dream' (Ur of the Chaldees) to go to the kingdom of God. In America, we must leave the American dream. Most are never going to do that. The dream comes first, not Christ. It was not easy on me when I left the military and it probably won't be easy on you either. You are just going to have to hold on, trust AND obey God. Once you do that, you know what? You are going to find that God is more than capable of taking care of you and while the path you took may not make the slightest sense in the natural mind and to your unsaved family and friends, when you look back it will make a whole lot of sense.

Take a step like that and you will find your false friends leaving you and some godly ones will spring up in their place. You will find that abundant life the Christ promised because he is going to take care of you all the way into eternity. Sure friends and family will mock you, laugh at you and withdraw themselves and give you their satanic opinions of you and God. This is just part of the burden you have when you truly honor God obey him and step out in real risk taking faith. They only show that they never really loved you. They loved the illusion they had of you and what they thought they could make of you, not Y-O-U for what you are. More and more you will hear the devil speaking clearly out of the mouths of such people. One of the greatest freedoms I have had is watching God cut ties with people like that. It is strangely liberating... as long as you are walking in Christ. God can reveal the character of the people around you in the strangest ways. When he does so, take a hint. I know bad relationships are something God has been working with me on for many years. I can remember many years ago I was in the shower and the Lord began speaking to me. He brought up every single friend and acquaintance in my life.. He then told me he was going to sever them and one by one, he did. I did nothing to sever them, but God did and only a few years later, did I recall what the Lord promised he was going to do and realized that he did it, just as he said he would. No effort was required on my part. I admit it kind of hurt me a bit at first but in retrospect, they were relationships of the unequally yoked variety. They were the devils ticking timebombs under my ship of faith. The Lord did not want them exploding in my life so 'Bomb removal' operations were necessary.

I have no desire to open up those doors again and will never make an effort to do so. The Lord sensed danger in those ties and one thing I have learned walking with Christ is never open up the door to the devil. If the Lord closed it, leave it closed, if he opens another and tells you to walk through, walk through it. Don't go back.

This is part of the life Christ calls us to, to put Christ first. Absolutely, totally and unreservedly first... even to the death. How many Christians can really say that in America. A lot will say it. For how many is it really true? A very small number.

Are you really willing to put Christ first above all things? Is Christ far, far more important than your career, your race, your nationality, your citizenship, even your family? Brothers, Christ was abundantly and crystal clear. He did not mince words. If you want into the kingdom that is the way you must walk. In faith, obedience, hope, love, humility, truth and Christ first, the kingdom first.

Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ, And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: (Phil 3:8-9)

Paul counted these things dung. Today there is a far less complimentary explicative that is probably more apt. Compared to what Christ has to offer, that is what all of these things are.

I know this site talks a lot about geopolitics and domestic politics' and economics. But the end time system is staring us in the face and most Christians do not even see it. They don't want to see it. They are under that strong delusion. It's a political economic delusion that has enormous and eternal spiritual ramifications. The first step out of deception is to open up your bibles and put Babylon's deceitful Wine of Fornications away...

So when you hear me talk about politics, some of it has different implications. Sometimes to show you which news sites you need to be careful of and more importantly why. Some of it to show you why some of the politicians so many Christians support are not what they appear to be (deceit). Sometimes it is to show you the evil our nation is doing in secret (abominations), while you wave a flag hollering for more (delusions). Other times it is to show you just what mankind has become (vile, unrepentant, anti-God, anti- Christ)... just what the bible said he was and would be in the last days. Because the best way to keep folks from being fooled (deceived) in these times especially, is to shine a light on the deceits of our time and that is what I try to do here.

To him who has ears to hear and eyes to see, let him or her ponder these things. Let us finish our spiritual journey in the safety and rest of Christ and continue on the narrow path to life and avoid the drunken, lunatic highway of Babylon.

Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light. (Matt 11:28ff)

The Lost Cause

A Word Against the Spirit of Hardhead.

Harden not your heart, as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness: When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my work. Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways: Unto whom I swear in my wrath that they should not enter into my rest.
(Psa 95:8-11)

We shall begin with this - Never presume upon the Lord. Never, ever do that. Do not presume that you can keep on sinning, being in rebellion, walking in willful ignorance of the times that God is going to keep on forgiving and accepting you. How did he deal with Ancient Israel who kept on provoking God? He rejected them, permanently. God swore an oath, and when he does that, he is not a man, God keeps his word. Pay attention you mockers out there. There are whole groups of people out there he has already done this with in America and they don't even know it. He is just that angry at them. They may be sitting in Church on Sunday, singing hymn's but you know what? They have missed God. When he was talking to them, they did not listen. when he was preaching to them, they turned away, when he was warning them, they scoffed, when he rebuked them, they rebelled. Brothers and sisters, a cold wind is going to blow in key sectors of America and her Churches because they have the spirit of hardhead and go into the Church of stiffneck, and walk in the halls of rebellion.

When you see strange things happen to large groups of people who were once considered special in God's eyes here in America you will understand what I am talking about. Don't expect it immediately. God is still dealing with individuals he wants to have fellowship with. So today if you hear his voice harden not your hearts.

But this thing that is coming may indeed be at the level of astonishment. An utter astonishment and when they cry out to the Lord, he not only will not hear them. For when he called out to them, they would not hear and mocked his prophets and scoffed at those who brought God's word to them.

And the LORD God of their fathers sent to them by his messengers, rising up betimes, and sending; because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling place: But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused his prophets, until the wrath of the LORD arose against his people, till there was no remedy.

Oh brothers, let us all develop a spirit that is teachable and humble. The spirit of hardhead springs from the spirit of pride, a satanic trait. How can you discern when God is speaking to you? I am going to tell you how, but most are never going to accept it. Are you ready? Here it is. Turn off the TV. Turn off the radio. Make things all quiet. Do you live in a house full of noise and cannot get quiet time? Go find a park or a lake or some quiet place where you can listen to God. Christ often went to a quiet place to pray. Brothers, I am going to tell you why so many Americans, especially men are not anywhere near at a spiritual place they should be. Entertainment, sports, partying and sex. God gently calls them aside because he wants to talk to them or deal with them and as soon as the Lord speaks, on goes 'NFL in Review' on Cable, or the latest Movie Blockbuster. the remote control firmly grasped in hand and a new layer of spiritual calcification surrounds their heads. Why is there no discernment in the Church? No one is paying attention to God or the times and such as these, they are going to be caught unawares on the great day of the Lord. The words being preached today in American Churches are more and more reflective of the world's morality and standards, not God's. The pastor is talking about Sports not Christ, and winding up his sermon on time so that people can get home and watch the game.

Look I know I may talk about America's sports addiction too much. But this is how Rome fell. It was games of the Colosseum, they played a key role. People were distracted no end by the games and entertainment of the arena. In the modern Rome it's the same thing. We have our bread and circuses. Christians need to be heeding the bread and wine (of communion) rather than the Bread and Circuses of Novo-Romanus. (new Rome). They are never going to do that until the power goes out and the TV goes dark and then it will be too late. The last days deception are right here, right now and the Church has taken the wine of delusion in large quantities. Hear me brothers on this, Too late means just that, too late.

And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood.
(Isa 1:15)

I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear: but they did evil before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.
(Isa 66:4)

Distractions will lead you into error and error will lead to sin and sin to rebellion and rebellion to hellfire. The key is to not be distracted in these times and to not let yourself be deluded.

Are you confused by our times and want to avoid delusion? Here is the very best way I can tell you how to fix that problem. Prayer, faith and dedication to Christ (instead of being double-minded)

If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him. But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed. For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord. A double minded man is unstable in all his ways.
(Jam 1:5-8)

Again we come back to the same theme; really honestly putting Christ first.

If the Church in America is messed up today, has waning influence in our dying world and is becoming the laughing stock of the world because of her behavior, it is because they have not put Christ first. He is not going to accept you putting your career, your family, you friends, your in laws, your home, your finances, your car or Sunday's game ahead of him. So today make up your mind. Stop being a man of two-minds... that unstable soul James warns us about.

Now therefore fear the LORD, and serve him in sincerity and in truth: and put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the flood, and in Egypt; and serve ye the LORD. And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.
(Jos 24:14-15)

I will serve the Lord. come hell or high water, come family members who chase me with a butcher knife, to friends who turn Judas on me, to severe persecution, to being mocked and laughed at behind my back, to being threatened by the powerful. I have made my choice...

I will serve the Lord.

My prayer is that this is your choice as well.
