Elitist Dream: Cull The Earth Of Its Population

This is a nightmare that is being actively planned for with new vaccines to create sterility, forced abortions and other methods to reduce the human population. - Infowars

This is pretty much what I talked about in my PESR. Not a whole lot new that I have not talked about for years. But one must ask, why the rush? Why so much about this now? Think about it. Scientists have just created a male sterility vaccine and called it a 'birth control' vaccine. Why this subtle term? When one thinks of Birth Control one thinks of something that is voluntary. When one thinks of Sterility one thinks of it as not being voluntary. Words are important because they elicit a reaction in the hearer who has been conditioned to respond to them in a certain way.

Tests in mice show it can make testicles "forget" how to make sperm — yet the mice became completely fertile again and fathered normal babies after they stopped getting the drug. The drug isn't ready to test in people yet, but if it worked, would provide a hormone-free way to help men control when they have families. - NBC

“Over the past 18 years, the WHO Task Force on Vaccines for Fertility Regulation has been supporting basic and clinical research on the development of birth control vaccines directed against the gametes or the preimplantation embryo. These studies have involved the use of advanced procedures in peptide chemistry, hybridoma technology and molecular genetics as well as the evaluation of a number of novel approaches in general vaccinology. As a result of this international, collaborative effort, a prototype anti-HCG vaccine is now undergoing clinical testing, raising the prospect that a totally new family planning method may be available before the end of the current decade.” - WHO

More here. Remember Bill Gates talked about vaccines to reduce the Human population and the establishment was either silent about it or mocked?

Brothers, I will give you my own views on this from a spiritual perspective that I do not think many have pondered.

We are moving into the very last hour of this age. Do we have 10 years before the Mark of the Beast system under the false prophet system is installed? Some would say yes, others no, but my guess is that in 10 years time if it is not installed, most will be able to figure out just where it is coming from. That is, those who know their bibles and have truly placed their faith in the risen Christ, and not some spiritual impostor they think is Christ. Let no man be deluded in this hour.

I think that this whole Eugenic push is being driven by Fallen Angels who have two main reasons to kill man. The first is one that has always been there. Satan hates mankind. He really hates us because God has shown such love and forbearance to us in our weakness and sin. We have a plan, instituted by God, to be restored with God. He and his fallen angles don't and never will. This is not only something that makes the devil very angry, but very frightened. Unlike you and me, he knows about hell. Many of his fallen 'buddies' are there, in everlasting chains.

*And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day.
(Jud 1:6)*

The second can be found in these verses that one I do not think many have seriously considered.

*But they which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage: Neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection.
(Luk 20:35-36)*

*But one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him? Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands:
(Heb 2:6-7)*

This is in my estimation rather important. Man was made a little lower than the angels but redeemed men will be equal with the angels. Why is this? I am going to give you my views but know that these are not just idle speculation.

I believe that mankind was made after Lucifer's (the serpent was already in the Garden) fall for the specific purpose of replacing all of those fallen angels with mankind. We humans are creatures who exist somewhere between the animals and the celestial. Those who overcome those 'beast like' instincts and rise above them to walk the path of life shall receive the reward that God gives to his faithful servants. We must overcome the flesh and the devil. The reward is to become what I would call one of the 'replacements'. We will replace those angels and take their jobs when we are resurrected and stand with Christ. The fallen angels are incensed over this. "How can those 'monkey things' replace us?" They decry. Not only that, but we sin all the time and are forgiven, they sinned but once (a great one though) and must bear the penalty for it forever. Oh yes, the devil and his imps are very, very angry.

So now when they see so many people down here, billions of us, they can do the math. They know that about one in a thousand are going to get saved... all the way. They know the exact number of fallen angels there were, they also know that when there are enough redeemed replacements, the jig for them is probably going to be up. Before, in the book of Genesis, they had an alternate plan, which was to pollute the genetic line of man and make Salvation impossible. Now I think that same plan will also be used (in a modified fashion) with new enhanced humans (genetically modified), but that is another question.

So I think the real impetus is that Satan is afraid of more men being saved because he can count. He knows that the number of those who are to be saved (based upon the number of fallen angels) is coming close to being fulfilled. I think this is why we have seen such an upswing in persecution as well; to scare people from believing the Gospel, especially in the Islamic world. The only way Islam can hold its believers is through fear of death if one leaves Islam, threats of imprisonment and economic destitution. The upswing in persecution is a desperation move by the kingdom of darkness. I say this because when persecution abounds, so does the Christian faith. It has always been the irony of Christianity that the more Christians are martyred, the more people turn to Christianity. So this move is truly one of desperation, because once a believer is killed, there is no more the devil can do to them. The number of 'replacements' has just increased by one.

So this brethren is the spiritual strategy of the population control agenda. Less people means less replacements. So the devil plans on making less people.

Dear readers, I say things to each of you so that you might pause and consider what I say here. The idea of man being replacements for the angels is not a new one. You can trace it back to St. Augustine. What I am trying to tell each of you is that this eugenics thing is being driven by powerful spiritual forces that only a few really understand its overall purpose and goal. Like I always like to tell my readers and I say it again, if you really want to see what these fallen creatures want to bring to the world, go back and study the Nazi's. Study how they organized an entire state based on the 'profit by death model'. Wars and death camps, slave labor and SS execution squads, the Nazi's knew how to profit from death. Even the SS used the death's head as an emblem.

Let all who know the Lord pause and consider what I have said here.

Yes, Its True Vaccines Are Part Of Population Reduction

On October 2nd a retired demographer at the World Bank admitted that vaccination campaigns are an integral part of the World Bank's population policies. John F. May, the Bank's leading demographer from 1992 to 2012, told the French web journal Sens Public (and in turn transcribed by the think-tank May works for) that vaccination campaigns, especially in so-called "high-fertility countries", are means to achieve population reduction in those countries. - Infowars

The 'Negro Project' has gone high tech, targeting non-aryan populations near you!

Always keep this in mind. The devil is always going to go contrary to God's command. One of the first commands given to mankind was to be fruitful and multiply. The devil's 'prophets' are always going to work against that command, as evidenced by this and the other policies being implemented on a global scale.
