

The Curse Of PC

When a person embarks on the mental gymnastics of political correctness, he or she destroys independent thought. Political correctness was a tool used by men like Stalin and Hitler with great skill. In Germany, it was pop culture to denigrate Jews and tell filthy jokes about them. A person had better tell them or at least laugh at them if they wanted to keep their job. Political correctness was a tool of the state that reinforced proper thinking into the culture. It is not much different today, the mechanics are less crude and more developed and this makes it a little more difficult to identify.

Political correctness is brainwashing. It is preconditioned mass reflex programmed into people by those with the power to reach into every home via TV, radio, print media and entertainment. Political correctness is no friend to anyone. While it has been used in the past ostensibly for good, its ultimate aim is the reinforcement of elite control over the psyche of the masses. In short, it is a tool of tyrants. It is important here to distinguish the fact that tyrants today do not look like tyrants. They are carefully and skillfully put before the people as respectable people and are often elected into office. They depend on the skillful use of Propaganda (which includes PC) to win over the hearts and minds of the people.

When one looks at our system here in America and sees the foolishness of our leaders an image comes to mind. I see a massive sea liner heading out over the arctic, full of people who are drunken, high and have a 'footloose and fancy free' attitude. I see the captain and his crew deciding how it would be great idea to take some jack hammers down below and start hammering away at the Hull. For hours that is what they do, in their drunken and arrogant stupidity. Anyone who tries to warn them that this will only bring in ice cold water to the ship and sink it is called an 'extremist' a 'political pariah' an economic 'Neanderthal'. 'This is a new age', they are told, the 'SS Politically Correct is unsinkable" says the captain as he takes another swig of burbon.

The drunkards on deck are too busy partying to care about what is going on. So they take the warnings of a couple of the crew as some kind of joke. Fortunately there are a couple on the crew who have quietly made preparations for a few others and are about to abandon ship in a life raft. The SS Politically Correct, with its crew and drunken, foolish passengers are about to become a page in history.

For years America has borrowed itself to oblivion. The American people would not have it any other way. This was a willfull, knowledgeable choice folks made with they went into the ballot box. They saw the deficits and voted for a continuance of them. How in the world do you borrow 12 Trillion dollars and not consider that a campaign issue? How do you borrow that much money have our Fed start printing money to borrow more and call voters who put folks like that into office again and again rational?

You cannot do it and remain honest but you can if you want to be politically correct.

This is no small issue because so much of America's missteps can be traced to its fiscal policy and economic model. Its rapacious death machine, its giving money for forced abortions overseas (yes FORCED) the torture and the overconsumption of the worlds resources, these all stem from her wicked economic model. Here is an example where PC fits in and brainwashing is present. The issue of abortion overseas is framed as though it is a 'choice issue', you know, make abortion available to women who want them. This way the brainwashed (that is what they are) have the issue framed in such a way as to support a woman's right to 'choose'. But in many instances, it has little to do with a woman's right to choose. The money is used for eugenics, compulsory abortions.

This is why American politicians have little respect for the opinions and (purported) cogitations of American voters. They are so easily manipulated and fooled by the most childish of propaganda. A ten year old overseas has more political savvy than most adult Americans. Why? Political correctness has a great deal to do with it. These are psychological strongholds in the minds of adults who have little or no political understanding or sophistication. They have the political IQ of someone who is mentally disabled. Such a statement is not PC, but it is the truth. Today, one cannot be both. One must be able to speak the truth and be willing to offend. That is what Christ did. That is what the Apostles did. Political correctness is a disease that has spread like locusts in the 20th and 21st century.

This is why we are sitting on 12 trillion in debt, pension funds are collapsing, unemployment benefits are drying up in state after state, people are being thrown out of work, and yet the nation can still find about a trillion dollars to fight more wars based on fallacious arguments and faulty intelligence. It is why our schools are dilapidated, people are still in torture facilities, the innocent go to jail and those who are accused of stealing billions are not even arrested.

I will tell you why.

Brainwashing. Americans are thoroughly brainwashed and I am sorry to say that most have not the moral courage to see it and admit it and inform themselves in a way that will save their nation and perhaps their very lives. Information is the most powerful tool in this age. It is hard to get, but in the Internet age, far from impossible. But people are still digesting that information with the psychological strongholds of PC thining; filtering out the critical and latching on to the trivial. They still have no clue.

The Bible calls this skill discernment and knowing the times we are in as well as what the scriptures teach about them are critical if one is to see life eternal. Christians in America are just as deceived as those who make no Christian profession. They are not walking after Christ but after the ways of the world. The big houses, the money, the fancy cars, big titles, the big bank accounts, they are in love with this world and its ways. Their minds are captive to the prince of this world, who does reward his servants with worldly goods in this life. The people who call themselves Christians have yet to renew their minds. They have yet to come to terms with what God requires for entry into the kingdom. First and foremost is to renew ones mind.

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

(Rom 12:1-2)

Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever. Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time. They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us. But ye have an unction from the Holy One, and ye know all things. I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

(1Jn 2:15-21)

Why are a great many Christians going to go through enormous trouble in the days ahead? I will tell you. There is rebellion in the camp and in the minds of most Christians, even those who think they 'in' have their minds captive to the spirit of this age. They are not walking in Christ but are being deceived by an extremely adept deceit machine that has run America into the ground and much of the Church into either rank apostasy or open hypocrisy. Folks who think they have some kind of 'anointing' are actually being run by deceiving spirits. Women who are teaching in Church when the scriptures strictly forbid this practice, as well as open unrepentant sinners in the Church hierarchy. These are open acts of rebellion. Why can't the Church accept the commandments of God? I will tell you, the commandments are not Politically Correct. In some instances, they are Anti-Politically correct. And I am there to testify before God and man, there are two types of people in this world, those that do God's commandments and those that don't and only one group is getting into the Kingdom.

And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

(1Jn 2:3)

And whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.
(1Jn 3:22)

Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.
(Rev 22:14)

America's demise can be laid to this political correctness and the uncritical thinking (or moral cowardice) that goes with it. Because a person who succumbs to PC thinking can be described in such a fashion: Those that don't know and act badly and those that know and act badly anyway.

These are the Christians that went out and voted for the Clinton's, Bush's and Obama's of the world. They think they know what is going on and that 'they are doing God's will'. Why would you give God a bad name and make a statement like that? Do you not know that this is close to blasphemy to ascribe to God an act that is not his? What God would tell you to vote for someone and a political party (either one) that that does the things this nation has been doing for nearly 5 decades?

How many babies murdered (about 40 million) and their body parts sold off?

How many People in Iraq killed, tortured and made into refugees (about a million killed, untold tortured and 4 million refugees)?

How many Christians in Iraq now at the mercy of Islamic extremists and our military won't help them?

How much money looted out of the treasury? Trillions.

I could write several pages of bullet statements like that and still most 'Christians' won't connect their actions and decayed spiritual condition with what this nation has done, is doing and will do.

Did God tell you to put money in the hands of forced abortionists? Did God tell you to support the torture of children? Perhaps your God did, but it was not the God of the Bible. Did you know that the Bible describes the end times as being extremely deceitful? Did you know that this nation is clearly mentioned in the Bible as being at the center of that deception? If not why not, if you claim to be walking with Christ.

This end times deception is claiming soul after soul and the spiritual blindness in the Church is the most serious issue facing it. Because the end time system as described in the Bible is a political, economic and spiritual entity that deceives the whole earth.

If I am being hard on Christians it is for a reason. I strongly urge you to come correct and repent of your evils, learn about our times now while the tools are available to you. Do it now because the next year or so is going to be pivotal for America and God is weighing his people in this nation now to see who is going to have to go through the worst of this coupled with his chastisement and those whom he will protect. I can testify that a hard-headed stiff-necked refusal to understand the times and the spiritual entity behind the folks that 99% of you voted for will land you in a heap of trouble and you may not survive it - Physically or spiritually.

I am writing a piece now that will open your eyes to some things as to what is just ahead, indeed already starting. So heed God's watchman on the wall who have been warning you for years about things other 'watchmen' were scoffing about. I know my God, he knows me and If I do not sound like a lot of the religions sites on the net it is for a very good reason. If you want to know why, go back and re-read what I just wrote, one more time.
