

There Is A Generation...

What does it mean to live in our times, having been touched by God's spirit and understanding what God requires of us? It means that we are going to have a hard time fitting in with the current generation. This is the way it should be, since we are of a very different heritage. The scriptures talk about times like ours and what kinds of people will inhabit the earth just before Christ returns. We will see a wicked and perverse generation rise up and their evil will become the new norm. In other words, if you are not twisted and wicked like they are, you are viewed as an outsider, an anachronism, a throwback.

There is a generation that curseth their father, and doth not bless their mother. There is a generation that are pure in their own eyes, and yet is not washed from their filthiness. There is a generation, O how lofty are their eyes! and their eyelids are lifted up. There is a generation, whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw teeth as knives, to devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men.
(Pro 30:11-14)

This is indeed an accursed Generation described above. What better verse to describe the generation of Americans that has vomited forth onto its once pristine lands. Now I am not here to say all Americans are like that, there are many quite notable exceptions and often times, perhaps more often than not, the really good folks make no Christian profession. They run homeless shelters, help the mentally disabled, assist the handicapped and have decided to give in this life rather than receive. Yet, I look at the number of abortions in America, the coldness so many have in this nation to the poor and the needy and the arrogance of the people and the nation as a whole. It pains me to see these things. But what is worse I think is that most Americans do not see themselves that way. They will run to the abortion clinic, have their baby literally sliced into pieces and call themselves 'good'.

"There is a generation that are pure in their own eyes, and yet is not washed from their filthiness."

I see the constant drone of war in America, who in her supreme arrogance wants to blow up parts of the planet who don't agree with their models of governance. Everywhere we turn America has dropped bombs, engaged in Special Operations against the poor, or even to start wars so that one side can blame another for something that the US did in secret, hoping for war. Even today its major corporations are behind throwing people off of their lands in far off places. But America is not the only one. We sing 'God bless America' and then fall down before satan and do all that he asks. Jesus may be on many of our lips, but most of America's hands are dedicated to the devils work.

Then we can see that in America how the poor are vilified and mocked. The wickedness against the poor is very great in this nation. I am not just talking about our war against 'poverty' in Afghanistan and Yemen, where we have taken to killing just about anyone who is dirt poor who dares to take up arms to end the constant cycle of violence against the poor of their nations and the corruption that is often overlooked if not encouraged by America. No I don't need to go very far at all to see how the Rich and Powerful nation of America treats poor people. America's cruelty against homeless people is well documented, right here against fellow Americans.

In October of 2004, three Milwaukee teens murdered a homeless man at his forest campsite. The teens hit 49-year-old Rex Baum, with rocks, a flashlight, and a pipe, before smearing feces on his face and covering his body with leaves and plastic. According to the criminal report, one of the boys "hit the victim one last time to see if he would make a sound like in Grand Theft Auto," and then cut him several times with a knife to make sure he was dead.

In August, Curtis Gordon Adams, 33, beat and stabbed a disabled homeless man to death, and then licked the blood from his fingers on a Denver sidewalk.

In June, two New York City teens, kicked, punched, and finally bludgeoned 51-year-old William Pearson to death in a churchyard. Pearson crawled to the church steps before finally dying of a fractured skull. "His head was a bloody mess," one police officer noted.

Sadly, these gruesome accounts are few of many, which demonstrate the hate / violence faced by people experiencing homelessness each year. The following report documents 105 hate crimes and violent acts that occurred in 2004, collected from newspapers and reports across the country. The narratives bring to light the discrimination and senseless violence faced daily by so many of our country's homeless citizens. - National Coalition For The Homeless

Yes, dear readers, 'there is a generation' and this, I hate to tell you is it. A generation that is pure in their own eyes but that is not washed from its filthiness. A generation whose teeth are like knives and whose teeth are as swords to devour the poor man from off of the earth. Here you cannot blame the Federal government, but ordinary Americans along with a number of local elected officials, who go out of their way to turn the other way when the Homeless are mistreated or serious crimes are committed against them. The wickedness goes right into the police departments. You can see a video of Cops dismantling (and deliberately destroying the precious little property they have) of homeless people here.

Yet the refrain you hear and the image of America (a pivotal part of the best system, let the reader understand) is one of a good nation, one that wears the 'white hat'. Yet the realities are far different. The real America is made up of Americans and any intelligent (foreign) person who has a 10 minute conversation with most Americans comes away with serious questions about how such base ignorance and cruelty could possibly reside within one human being all at the same time. As Hugo Chavez before the UN said, 'you can smell the sulfur'. Because when it all boils down to it, many Americans just don't care about anything but their own bank account. They will cheat any soul, lie and tell themselves any lie (self deceit) to get more money. They like to make noble noises, but in many lurks the spirit of larceny, greed and a hardness to the less fortunate. America has a epidemic. A serious one that cannot be cured by vaccines or pills.

Americans Growing Epidemic Of Violence

Over the past twelve years (1999-2010), advocates and homeless shelter workers from around the country have seen an alarming, nationwide sustained increase in reports of homeless men, women and even children being killed, beaten, and harassed. In response to these concerns, the National Coalition for the Homeless has produced twelve reports documenting these acts, the newest report entitled Hate Crimes against the Homeless: Violence Hidden in Plain View. Our reports are collected from a variety of sources including media and advocacy reports. However, it is important to mention the numbers of crimes collected in our reports are estimated to be a gross under-representation of the actual number of incidents due to lack of reporting to police, victims. - Hate Crime Organizing Manual National Coalition for the Homeless

- Homeless Man Seeking Refuge from Cold Beaten to Death (New York, NY, January)
- Two Teens Beat a Homeless Man in His Sleep (Key West, FL, March)
- Teen Hits, Kicks, and Stomps Homeless Man to Death (Bend, OR, April)

Did you know that these are the kinds of traits that mark the last days system and the new satanic morality that will permeate the earth just before the Lord returns?

*This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God; Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.

Brothers are not these terrible trends more and more in evidence? We have seen many, if not most of these traits explode on the the American social scene over the past few decades. Indeed, these are perilous times. Strange things are happening in our world with governments being toppled, strange weather changes, whole ecosystems being effected negatively by man's actions, wars and rumors of wars and very strange and terrible new weapons that have been fielded and used on people that the world has never been told about. Perilous seems to describe so much of what is happening today. Paul's words to Timothy here shows the declining character of mankind. It is a litany of his moral and spiritual de-evolution, if you will. What is sadder still is that Paul's words seem to be more directed to the Church than to the world outside. Does this not describe what is happening in many Churches across the nation? Having been seduced by the gifts of mammon granted to faithful servants of the Harlot, God's doctrine gets jettisoned and another gospel takes its place. Let me ask those of you who are stuck in these kinds of Churches a serious question. When was the last time your pastor talked intelligently and biblically about Christ's Return? When was the last time he really spent some time elucidating key events and prophecies that we as Christians are commanded (not requested) to watch for? Why won't they do it? For many it is because quite frankly, they don't want Christ to return. They like things the way they are. They are comfortable in the world. They don't groan and weep against evil and wickedness in our times, they justify and at times even support it! The job of these kinds of pastors is to make you comfortable in the world as well, giving you some useless homilies you don't even have to apply to your lives in Sunday's sermons. "Don't forget to tithe your 10%" sermons get the majority of the pastors sermon time. That and invite your (rich) friends to Church next Sunday.

Yes, dear readers, there is a generation that is accursed in all they do as they do the things listed above. They may be making lots of the devils paper (money) but that is the reward for faithful service to the Lord of Darkness. The other side of that reward is too horrible for your mind to contemplate. So I ask and exhort all who love our Lord to do what you can to be totally different than this generation. Don't be haughty with the arrogant look, but be humble and kind. Don't mistreat your elderly parents who may have some 'issues', but love them, respect them and when they get too old to function fully in the world, take care of them. There is an enormous blessing in that. Be kind and generous with those less fortunate than yourself. That includes the homeless and the poor. Have and keep an attitude of gratitude each and every day. Keep your word, never lie or break it.

Be a light in the darkness, a torch in a dark cave. Speak truth in a world full of lies, and live on the basis of love instead of self. Put Christ Jesus at the center of all you do, honor him in your words, thoughts and deeds and brothers, you will escape the punishment that has been specially prepared for this generation.
