

Is This "It" ? - WW

I think it is. It is entirely possible that the President will call a banking emergency and close America's banks. I am not saying this is a foregone conclusion or even a probability. I would say that it is a real possibility and that as a word of friendly (non-professional) advise. Get some cash in your possession if you can. I have not waited around. Why? If they have a banking holiday they will not warn you ahead of time and whatever withdrawal restrictions they put in place they will not be pleasant. So a word to th wise. The worst that can happen is you have to pay an ATM access fee for withdrawing $400 a couple of times.

Whatever you do if your are a Christian DO NOT PANIC. DO NOT FREAK OUT. Remain calm and roll over in our mind what you will do if you do not have access to cash. Will you need gas? Food? Medicine? Babyfood, Diapers? Think independently. Think as though for two weeks nothing is going to be open and you cannot leave your home except at certain times. Caveat. I have NO INSIDE information on what is coming. NONE. I can only warn you as God has charged me. I think it is possible that this crisis will soon envelope many regional banks and lock up the intrabank payment systems (because of defaults and non-payments thus causing checks not to clear) causing a cascade across the entire US financial system. I am not saying that this is going to happen. I am saying that it could happen, and everything I have seen the past two weeks tells me that this is more and more a possibility.

So the time to get it together is NOW. Not next week or next month. Do what you can now. The financial system is in a complete mess and in a total meltdown and they only have paperclips, chewing gum and elmers glue to hold it together. What happened with Leahmans and AIG when they went under is trillions of dollars of derivatives went into technical default, with no insurance. No one knows what will happen next. No one knows what to do. This is a hundred times worse than 1929 and everyone inside knows it. Each bailout and 'loan' from uncles Sam makes things worse for us later. It will not hold together without more major shocks coming right down from Wall Street to Main street. So be ready. This is not anywhere near over and even when the credit crisis is done, the fall out will last YEARS, probably a decade, not months as some are claiming.

Be ready for anything. The internet to go down, power to be cut, troops to patrol the streets. I am NOT saying this is going to happen, but that it might and what I say to each of you is to prepare yourself for anything. There has never been a situation like this. This is worse than the crash of 1929 and the fallout for America will also be worse THE BAILOUTS ONLY FORSTALL THE INEVITABLE. Just how it all shakes out is not known to me but if you read this site you will remember the 'three tracks' the US could take when I put it on my news page earlier this week.

Some have claimed there is economic warfare going on and that a secret cabal of nations and leaders are behind this all. I cannot vouch for this. While clearly some would like to see us humbled any such move will mean pain for their own economies as well. Sometimes people are too conspiratorial. The reality is that this financial crisis is more a conspiracy based on greed, arrogance and stupidity. The three have been together now for years and run the Executive Branch, The Fed and the Treasury. Yes, there could have been a trigger used by dark forces who work behind the financial markets using dark pools and other quasi-criminal forms of banking, this is possible. But the evidence for this is scant and anyone who stumbled on the real truth (not internet conspiracy 'truth' you hear bantered about) would not live long enough to vocalize his or her findings. So be real careful of anyone who writes or talks about such 'information'. If they are still walking around after revealing such 'truths', they did not reveal the truth to you and are probably having their 'chain jerked' around by some government black-operator, feeding them disinformation. Please be careful of the internet web of conspiracy disinformation. Having said all of that, there are a couple of news groups that deal in the stuff so far out in the freak-zone that some good and courageous people are able to post small snippets of the truth in a very small number of select forums but they deliberately obfuscate what is told with pseudo-conspiracy jargon for the express purpose of destroying their own credibility. These are the ones who know the score and want to talk AND stay alive. I assure you, I am not exaggerating saying too much truth or connecting too many of the real dots puts a contract on your life.

Hindered Prayers.

I need to talk about this because a lot of you are going to get hit in the head with an 'economic brick' in the coming months and are not going to be able to psychologically deal with it. It will be too much for you to come to terms with the reality many of you have long, long ignored. The truth is that you have sinned, loved sin, walked in sin voted for sin and your hands are stained in blood.

And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood. Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil; Learn to do well; seek judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow. Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool. If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land: But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it. (Isa 1:15-20)

You say, I have killed no one? Who have I killed, bear witness you false prophet! I will bear witness. In this (and the last election) hundreds of thousands of lives hung in the balance. The lives of Iraqi's (and Iraq's fairly large Christian community), the lives of South Americans, the lives of Afghans, the lives of American children whose skulls are crushed just before they take their first breath of life. Americans have and will vote to continue the killings, with great enthusiasm. Among those will be millions of Christians who will do so and think that they are doing God service. This armed beast that ravages the world today must have voters who support it, a Congress to pay for it and Courts to say the illegal acts (like torture) are 'legal'. They have to find a serious plurality of murderers in most states to continue the violent onslaught. They have it. Thus the war machine rumbles on, in city after city town after town, village after village.

Did you vote for this? Will you vote to continue it (and I mean BOTH major parties)? Then your hands are stained in blood. Many of you wonder why your prayers are not answered and will not be answered when you are thrown out of your house, jobs and have no where to go. You will be mad at God because he has not heard your prayers for a great many things; a new job, a spouse, your kids to be healthy, a relative to get out of jail, a loved one to be free of drugs... a thousand different things the LORD hears everyday as prayers bombard his throne room. I will tell you now you gets answer and who does not. Those that DO the will of God. Those whose hands are not stained with the blood of his or her brother, whose tongue speaks the truth, whose heart is pure those who demonstrate a love of justice and a spirit of giving. That is a man or woman who will have their prayers answered, for the prayers of a righteous man avails much. But men and women who have made a perverse habit of ignoring the truth when God sent others to speak with them? They are in the crosshairs. The Living God has a controversy with those who loved lies and hated the truth. He has a controversy with those who do not care about the lives of others. He has a controversy with those who have been privileged and used those privileges for evil rather than as a tool to help those less fortunate. America herself is in those same crosshairs, her people as well, who are as much responsible for her actions as her leaders are.

Americans are also guilty of Idolorty. The worship of money and wealth (mammon) as well as the idol of America. It is the real god of so much of America's religious right. Like the old emperors who were deified, false religion has always played a pivotal role in state power. Today is no different. The religious rights real god is America, they are willing to play Christian as long as the Living God, helps the idol they have set up in their hearts. God bless America, they say and really demand and in a choice between the two, it is America for most. Sadly they do not understand the errors of America and work to continue them rather than stop them. They say they love God but their hearts are far from them.

Then came certain of the elders of Israel unto me, and sat before me. And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their heart, and put the stumblingblock of their iniquity before their face: should I be enquired of at all by them? Therefore speak unto them, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Every man of the house of Israel that setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to the prophet; I the LORD will answer him that cometh according to the multitude of his idols; That I may take the house of Israel in their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols. Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Repent, and turn yourselves from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations. For every one of the house of Israel, or of the stranger that sojourneth in Israel, which separateth himself from me, and setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to a prophet to enquire of him concerning me; I the LORD will answer him by myself: And I will set my face against that man, and will make him a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of my people; and ye shall know that I am the LORD. (Eze 14:1-8)

This idolatry things is a serious issue and it is time for each and everyone of you to decide which kingdom is yours. Spiritual adultery a very serious sin. The Empire of America or the Kingdom of God. The two are now diametrically opposed to one another. If you are in the Kingdom of God you will know what I am talking about. Your priorities, your goals, your loves and your hates are not like those of the world. You understand the times and just how deceitful they are. You know because you have been guided and led by the Spirit of God.

I know what I am saying is 180 degrees opposed to what so many prophets are saying. They are saying smooth words for America's Christians. They are interested in comforting them IN their sin. God is going to make you most uncomfortable in it to get you OUT of it. That is why America is going through this crisis now. It is to separate the wheat from the chaff among Christians. This crisis is likely to send many back to Church (hopefully a real Christ centered one and not a religious corporation) and many more to forsake their faith completely.

What America has done around the world brings us to the concept of collective guilt. Both in the Church and among the nations. Did you ever notice that the first few chapters of Revelation are written to seven different Churches and each had specific promises threats and sins recorded? None were identical and there was collective guilt in the entire assembly. If you go back to the Old Testament you see the idea of collective guilt was real in the way God dealt with Israel and even such places as Sodom and Gomorrah and Nineveh. Yes there is such a thing as collective guilt and America and Americans are in the cross hairs. Why do you think that God tells his people to get out of Babylon? He says come out her her. Why? So that we will not share her plagues.

And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities. (Rev 18:4-5)

God is telling his people to come out, the false prophets are still in love with her and are willing to do just about anything to save their real god.

What does come out of her mean? At the very least it means to separate yourself from the spiritual poisons of the harlot, described in detail in Revelation 17 & 18. It also means knowing that this harlot is a kingdom of this world and as such opposed to the Kingdom of Christ Jesus. But for many, I have maintained, it means a physical removal as well. I think (my own personal opinion) that NY is not a place Christians should be in now, unless God specifically directs it. I think this crisis is going to cause a lot of God's people to move when they may not have wanted to, but it will be to a place that God has ordained before he 'lowers the boom' on the GREAT CITY (Rev. 17:18), so clearly described in John's prophecy.

Thus I say to each of you who has ears to hear, get before God and ask him what you should do. He will tell you. DO NOT PANIC, things are very, very bad but God is still in charge. The evil ones are still attacking God's kingdom with evil, murder usury, thefts, lies and witchcraft, but they will not succeed. Christ will defeat the works of darkness, but not before things get very, very much worse down here on Earth.

Take heed.

God bless you all and if the Internet does go down, please keep me in your prayers anyway.

The Collapse Of A Thousand Banks

In an exclusive interview with CNBC.com, Wilbur Ross, chairman and CEO of WL Ross & Co., says he sees possibly as many as a thousand bank closures in the coming months. And this will create opportunities for investors.

"I do think a lot of the regional ones will (close), just as they did in the last savings and loan crisis in the 1990s," Ross said.

Some one is telling it like it is but his comparisons to the S&L crisis is quite deceptive. There were not Trillions of dollars worth of derivatives heading to default as they are now. The S&L crisis did not take down major Wall Street Banks. No this crisis is going to be considerably worse than the relativley mild S&L crisis.(end excerpt)

As I have been saying for about a year now, this crisis has the potential to close YOUR BANK. Don't be fooled by sweet smelling lies coming from Washington This crisis is as bad as they get and the entire US financial system is teetering on a disaster that will take a generation to fix. It requires bold measures to fix it like the kinds I have been suggesting for a couple of years now. Wipe away the debts. Yes there are a myriad of problems associated with it, but not nearly as many as the ones that we face if we do not wipe them away. The solutions sound overly simplistic but in reality they are not. The hardest part will be replacing the dollar (getting rid of debt will ultimately destroy the dollar as we know it as those abroad hold a 'debt' with each dollar they have and not a real unit of wealth). I maintain that the dollar is going to the scrap heap of history anyway. Either way it is going to mean real trouble for we Americans who fell in love with an unearned lifestyle. They are about to lose it; maybe slowly, maybe quickly but it is going just the same.

Some of you are still in 'La-La' Land and are still not aware of just how dire the situation is. I can only say this. If you are not genuinely concerned, you are not paying attention and do not know what is happening. God will protect HIS people, but only if they do as he commands and one of those commandments is to KNOW THE SIGNS OF THE TIMES and to be AS WISE AS SERPENTS BUT AS HARMLESS AS DOVES and to WATCH. This is not the time to let ignorance and slumber rule your life. DO NOT BE A FOOLISH VIRGIN. Deceit is everywhere and most of you have swallowed it and do not know it.

No one really is talking about this crisis as being what it is. A clear and outward sign of the rapid waning of American hegemony. No, policy experts will not say it like this, with such bluntness and finality. They still essentially work for America's arms and energy industries (via donations or contracts to their foundations or 'Intelligence' and 'policy' corporations). But the reality is there. The US is going to have a rough time maintaining its empire with the kinds of fiscal constraints that I see coming. They probably will not happen all at once but they will happen. What remains to be seen is how the US deals with this crisis. There are three basic tracks to take. One is the FDR route. Reorganize the economy in a way the rebuilds it and makes it strong again. It will take a boldness that none of the current candidates have (except perhaps Nader) The others are bought and paid for by the crooks who made this crisis to begin with. Another track is to do essentially what Washington is doing now: Very little, except attempt to fix a system that is beyond repair. It will end in failure. The third (and most likely) is the Fascist model. Do what Hitler did with his economy when it collapsed. Shift all power to a corrupt Central government, militarize the economy, divide the common people with racist hate and begin wars of conquest. Which will the US choose? I cannot say but sooner or later a change will come and we will either do the FDR 'thing' or start reading from the Hitler playbook. While I cannot predict the future, I can read a campaign donation list and read the names of top campaign advisors. I know that the real tendency for America doing the the 'Hitler shuffle' is very, very real. Even if Obama gets into office, which I still think is likely. It is not that I think he is a bad man, he isn't. In fact as far as character goes he rates much higher than most politicians. But he has surrounded himself with some real political scum and is extremely ambitious. He has also demonstrated a propensity for betrayal that shows me clearly that if his handlers want a fascist model he will, however reluctantly, bring it about. He may not want to but will have little choice. Some say I am too hard on him. 'They all do that' I am told. Yes, they do and what has it gotten us?

Thus, I see a real chance for a real fascist streak to be shown in order to deal with this crisis and our democratic system being thrown by he wayside in order to protect a corrupt group of kelptocrats (from both parties). The next administration, in my estimation, will be pivitol. The way they attempt to correct the past 20 years of fiscal, political and spiritual damage on the US will be key to what kind of America emerges, if we emerge at all. Yes, I am here to say and repeat what I have said before in my writings. America as we know it is likely to change in ways that almost no one has talked about, except 'voices in the hinterlands' like me. States declaring independence from the Federal government, Civil conflict, foreign interference and assistance to armed immigrant groups deeply rooted in American society... I think in one form or another each will come to the US, sooner rather than later and we will find that administrative disasters like the DHS are a serious hindrance rather than enhancement to US security.

If I sound different that most it is for a reason. I am not in the pay of Corporate America or anyone else for that matter and do not have to worry about being viewed as a pariah for stating the obvious. I do not have to worry about losing a contract at the DHS, Exxon, GE or Blackwater if I tell it like it is. Others do. That is why I am and will remain different. Consider this: I was warning about this crisis for YEARS before it happened, I alluded our fiscal situation in a book I wrote back in 1999 (published in 2000). Everyone else laughed and called me 'chicken little' and 'religious nut'. The crisis is now upon us. Now I am warning you of another threat, a new America our leaders may try and build that will be even more odious and violent than the one Bush has created in 8 years of mismanagement. It is a real and not imaginary threat as the violent and illegal repression witnessed at both political conventions demonstrated as well as US citizens DYING in US concentration camps. It also demonstrates with the vicious and unending assault on the US constitution we have witnessed under both Bush AND Clinton. That will be the time when foreign governments will have an 'in' into mainstream America to give support to elements in 'freedom' movements that unfortunately will probably turn to violence. People will not do it on a full stomach in warm houses. But will when they are hungry and homeless, a situation that will come to many an American as this crisis unfolds.

I know this is a dark picture. But economic upheavals on this scale bring with it social and political chaos and sometimes violence. Right now you do not see it. You have heat in your house and a car to drive and food to eat. But a growing number of Americans are having trouble in all three areas now and I am here to tell you that it is going to get much worse before it gets better. You do not unwind $62 Trillion dollars of bad debt peacefully and those who say otherwise are either clueless or lying to you.
