

Marks Of The Sun

Tribworks Research

Updated 22. December 2002

The Masonic "Great Seal" of the United States; the pyramid or sacred triangle and the "All-Seeing-Eye" of the demon posing as Horus, all in one picture. Perhaps the most common symbol of the sun god - especially seen among: masonry, Rosicrucians (means "red cross"). Knights of all orders, Romanism, and of course the Egyptian demology. These spirits leave their tell-tale sign all over the world and throughout history like fingerprints. It is an absolute proof, because it is spiritual. I have often seen people who are merely descendants of sun cult members - but not members themselves, who would buy the symbols shown on this page, often completely oblivious of their own past and the spiritual meaning of them, and how spirits pass from generation to generation, or sexually from partner to partner. Of course, the atheistic medical world tries to explain these things with genes -- it's really hilarious sometimes watching so-called "educated" people try to explain away the spiritual world!

Ameritrade. Sacred triangle, with sun rays to be sure everyone knows this is the sun diety. There are many, many financial symbols pointing to the authority of the sun.

Illuminati Online. During George W. Bush's presidential campaign, this company hosted his website.

Alcan. Canada. Unmistakeable pyramid or triangle, with an eye. Alcan is publicly pushing for abolishment of the 3 North American currencies - the peso, dollar and Canadian dollar. This, of course, would concentrate power over all three countries to one bank.

Sunwheel / Crosswheel. A cross with four equal lengths has nothing to do with Christianity, but sun worship. This symbol is over 5000 years old, (that we know of, found in French caves) and is even today universally known as the sign of the Sun god. The first picture on the left is the Switzerland tourism symbol. Could it be more clear? A sunwheel or crosswheel inside a monstrance, like saying "I serve the sun" twice for good effect. From www.MySwitzerland.com, and in a land of less than 3 sunny days per week, this is clearly a Templar sun, the symbol given to the Crusader Knights (who founded Switzerland) by the Pope himself. The Templars, the wealthiest sun cult ever, bankers to the Pontifex Maximus, of "Protocols of Sion" fame, were assigned this sun cross around the time of the brutal Crusades, while they owned 30% of European land and most of its gold. This combination of sun worship, money and brutality gave the sun cross a new emphasis on war, becoming the symbol of choice for blood machinery of Germanic lands, a prototype of the Jesuits, and much later, the Germanic Iron Cross used by the Luftwaffe, and of course the Germanic Russell Trust, and its war-mongering cult member George Bush.

Switzerland, a playground for the Pope's banker-warriors, and for 600 years a non-country without a flag or even a unified military, decided in 1889 to create a "national" flag, under pressure from Napoleon, who after conquering their forced Switzerland to at last become a country, giving it the name "Helvetic Republic." The official line told today is that the flag came from Canton Schwyz, which is a lie, for Schwyz adopted it much later than the militias and the nation, previously having had a completely unrelated flag. Chosen was the flag of the sun-worshipping Knights, which was taken directly by the military flags used by the various states' militias at the time. By this time it was known in Germanic lands as a symbol of war, and lesser known as a symbol of allegiance to the Sun. Hitler's (and modern Germany's) Luftwaffe (and many German sun cult cathedrals!) display what is known as the "Iron Cross". This is actually much older than Germany, and most Germans, as well as the Swiss, are completely ignorant that they live under these ancient signs of sun worship. I have been in several German cathedrals with the sun cross sculpted into the ceiling directly centered over where the SUNday worshippers would sit, pray and sing. Intellectuals and Athiests are sometimes the most ignorant people you will ever meet - for they must stuff 90% of history in a box labelled "doesn't exist", or face their own fallacy. The Sun and gold-loving Knights, forerunners of the Jesuits, wore the Pope's red and white sun cross proudly on their clothing. It was valid both in white on red (Knights of Malta, 11th century, Swiss militias) and red on white (Crusaders) versions.

The sun wheel, and cross, is of course, as old as man, who has for 6,000 years worshipped the sun. The cross is the sign of the Prince who rules this world, having its origin with Nimrod of Babylon, "Tammuz". The Jews, after God severely judged them and destroyed their country because of despicable satanism and paganism, promptly adopted even more paganism from their captors, the Babylons, and adapted their calendar to include pagan gods such as a summer month named Tammuz, which includes the "Fast of Tammuz" - which God HATES, and has recorded His ANGER in Ezekiel for all eternity. Because of this, I can tell you that until the Jews remove this feast and month from their calendar, they will continue to be pursued by the sword, as God promised them. The next blood bath -- or sacrifice of millions of Jews to, ironically, their sun god Lucifer -- will most likely start within 2-3 years, and be completed by 2008. God promises that a Jew left standing in Jerusalem will one day be a miracle. This is because he who has tasted of God's goodness, and then chooses Lucifer, will suffer the wrath of God in a greater amount than the pagans. This is why America will face the sword; not because America is Jewish, or a "new Israel", as many pagan Christians believe, but because a large percent of Americans have tasted -- or have ancestors who have tasted -- of the depths of God's love and grace such as no group in the history of the world, and turned away to honor pagan angels. The sword is again coming on the Jews for their paganism (approved by God, a disturbing fact for those who don't know God, and who haven't read the books of the Prophets in the Bible), UNTIL THEY REMOVE THE SUN demon (Tammuz) from their calendar, and symbols of the sun from their houses, clothing, and flag. Honor = worship. Symbols displayed prominently are worship, i.e. "high places" not removed!

This is the same sun god, or Morning Star, who offered Jesus the kingdoms of this world, if he would bow the knee, as the Pope does before "Mary" (bowing the knee is worship). The countries and governments of this world belong to Lucifer by law, hence the eagle of Jupiter in many government signs, and the pentagram on weaponry (USA, N.Korea, Russia) and the sun cross (Germany) or just the sun (Japan). Satan is the sun demon, which is why most every established pagan culture -- from Babylon to the American Indians -- has used the symbol of the cross, specifically the Swastika and crosswheel. This is why the Bible calls the cross a curse - "cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree (wood, beam)." This is why you will find that the cross is the symbol of the Whore of Babylon -- and the 6th empire of Revelation -- and is found around the necks of Hollywood sex goddesses, satanic Rock-n-Roll stars, and priests of the sun cult who rape little boys, not to mention high level, blood-shedding luciferians who indulge in human sacrifice. The most important human sacrifice to satan, on Lucifer's own symbol, his cursed cross was, of course, Jesus, who was sacrificed by Cabalistic Jews and the Roman empire together (they are still working together!) to their common sun god. The G-d of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, being infinitely more powerful than 1,000 apparitions of Magna Mater or Venus or Cybele or Lucifer, literally blew that sacrifice to hell - conquering the cursed cross, Lucifer, hell, Cybele, Mercury, Cabala and Rome in one fell swoop. Of course, Rome and the Jews believe is why the pagan cross triumphed over Christ, which is to this day the ongoing 4th Beast empire of Rome and Cabalah and witchcraft alike use the cross, believing that its power to destroy Christ reigns supreme. Now you know why Catholics have Christ hung on a cross everywhere, and even around their necks, just like the ancient pagan Rebo, 15 centult is ironic that pagans use wicked symbols to "ward off evil", while every one of these symbols honor lying demons who steadily degrade those who invite them into their house. Honor is a form of worship, don't forget. The children of Cabala and satanists use the wicked "double triangle" a.k.a. "Solomon's star". The children of the sun cult use a cross. The Bible makes it clear the cross is a curse, not a blessing. Anyone who wears a cross around their neck is putting themselves under a curse! King James incorrectly translates "stauros" as "cross" to further the great deception, as King James was the world's foremost sun worshipper at the time, being worldwide head of the Knights Templar, and having knighted more men per year than any other Templar king. There are several verses in the KJV (of 1611) which seem to be obfuscation of warnings from God about demonic practices, which, of course, all Templar researchers know was very much a part of Knighthood, not just when King James ruled the cult, but back to the first crusade. Every house and church built by a Knight which I have visited has prominently displayed symbols of sun-worship, especially around the Catholic areas of Austria and south-eastern Germany.

The closer to pure satan worship, the more you will see the cross. One pagan religion even puts Yeshua on the pagan cross in perpetuity, as a reminder that the ultimate goal of pagans throughout history is to sacrifice the pure, Holy Messiah to Lucifer. Second choice, of course, is a young Christian - preferably a girl, 3rd choice is any young person under 18, and lastly, newborn or unborn babies or other animals. Pagans hate truth, virtue, self-sacrifice, and an absolute, and all powerful God who doesn't bow to lowly, arrogant humanity. There are those who think the "Mark of Cain" was a cross, the Annu, for the sign of Nimrod which has been excavated in ancient Babylonia is also the sign of the sun god Annu, the double cross or asterisk or 8-pointed star. Another name for Nimrod was Tammuz, whose sign was a cross or "T".

The sun god is worshipped by all the world powers mentioned in Revelation, and is, of course, the symbol of the 6th Kingdom (Rome, now "healed" of the wound of "Protestantism", to become the 7th kingdom, to be revealed after WWII - next year?) as shown on the reverse of Constantine's coins from the 3rd century A.D. The 6th Kingdom on 7 hills also destroyed the Commandment to keep the 7th day holy, changing pagan worship to the day of the Sun, or SUNDAY. Today, "Protestants" dutifully "keep" Sunday (as any priest or rabbi will tell you, Shabbath and Sabbath are the 6th day, which Rome renamed after the Luciferian god Saturn, Saturday), and the pagan "sunrise service" of Ishar (pronounced Easter) often facing east, not knowing they are earning brownie points redeemable in Hell. Lucifer is about deception, and everyone who follows him is deceived, thinking he is god. That is why you see his symbols in most churches, for most churches call themselves Christian but they are of Lucifer. Only the very small elite of Satanists, Romanists, Druids, Templars and Shriners acknowledge they worship Satan. The masses never go beyond the entry level, never flow in the great power of Satan, except for imitation healings and tongues, and are therefore completely deceived - ignorant of their destination.

Sun worshippers will all be shocked to find themselves behind barbed wire someday instead of pearly gates. That is the nature of the Prince of this world, and all groups belonging to Satan are officially authorized to "lie like the devil" to "outsiders": Mormons, Masons, Muslims, secret societies - deny, deny and lie. Those with a big cross on the roof or wall are deeply deceptive, presenting themselves to the world as white and holy, when they are actually filthy, arrogant, proud of their works, and have never felt a grievous sorrow for their sin, but simply "accepted Jesus" as 33rd degree Shriner Graham used to say. Eternal life is for those who repent, turn, and bow the knee every day, forever. No more self, so more pride. No more doing it "my way" as Sinatra sang. This is why everyone chooses a counterfeit church instead - Satan gives you power without repentance, without the embarrassment of saying you're sorry, or giving up your anger, hatred and desire for revenge, or your lust to wake up each day and do whatever self wants to do that day. With Lucifer, you can speak in tongues, laugh like a dog on the ground, AND embrace your selfish pride and sin. The only catch is, instead of dying to self now, you die forever, later. THE BIG SECOND DEATH. Jesus said to the church pastors and priests of His day, "You do the deeds of your father the devil (diabolos)... he was a murderer from the beginning... and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks of himself: for he is a liar, and the father of lies..." Beware of buildings with crosses and steeples! That is NOT an organization which pleases God, no matter how good it looks! Remember, Lucifer is an angel of light, and can deceive absolutely everyone whose goal is a little bit different than becoming a slave of Christ. Those with sin in their life (usually unforgiveness) are also easily deceived, following "a way that seems right, but leads to destruction" as the Bible warns. Lucifer lies to everyone, even his highest generals, from the Pope to the Queen of Heaven, and of course, mere men of great arrogance such as Albert Pike, one of the greatest advocates of "necessary deception to initiates" I have ever read. The hallmark of those under Lucifer's influence is a mouth full of lies, obfuscation of truth, and despicable arrogance, which explains why Jesus expressed rage at the Jewish religious leaders ("Talmudites") 2,000 years ago.

Citibank. Another crosswheel. Proportional cross inside a circle. This is not the cross of Christ! This cross goes back thousands of years before Christ. No wonder Citibank is famous as a money laundering bank.

The second logo, a rising sun, just recently came out, proving to everyone that the older logo was indeed a sunwheel.

Sun Trust Bank. Another rising sun. Of course, the name of the bank is a giveaway.

Swiss Life. crosswheel. Making the headlines right now for massive derivatives losses, and general corruption. Anyone with a sun logo cannot be trusted. Stay away. A former central banker just was named CEO (Dec.2002)

Lucent Technologies. This symbol is so demonic, I don't know where to start. A Japanese Zen Buddhist circle is angry because Lucent ripped off their "enso" or "sumi circle". If you recall, Japan is the "land of the rising sun". Sun worship is in their genes, it seems. Occultists know this sign stands for their beloved satan, the "solar serpent". A snake crouched in a circle, with tail in mouth, is called an "oroboros", and stands for the dragon who is the alpha and omega, according to "The Illustrated Book of Signs and Symbols" by Miranda Bruce-Mitford. As mentioned above by Citibank, the circle is a brace of the sun god, and Lucifer, and occultists use the circle to call up demonic powers.

If you ever visited the World Trade Towers before they fell, you would know there was a huge occultic circle beside them. 9-11 was simply America's greatest sacrifice. Sadly, Bush and the New York Society of Jesus laid out another huge circle at the 1st year anniversary, and broadcast it around the world - the largest witchcraft ritual in world history. I can tell you that this ceremony means New York City will be completely sacrificed to the sun god in the near future. The entire city of New York is going to disappear like the towers, and I know this because I watched the ceremony on TV, and almost puked. Freemason writer J.S.M. Ward says the circle symbolizes god. He is correct, but the god of Masonry and of "in god we trust" are not the God of the Bible, but fallen spirits of deception and destruction. Where they rule they bring death. Lucent leases an office in NYC; the address? 666 Fifth Avenue. Lucent has developed many surveillance items in the area of telephony and internet. After taking billions of dollars from "investors", the Big Brother systems are ready, and Lucent is no longer interested in Wall Street - obvious from the price of the stock.

Notice the blue Manly P. Hall illustration at left: dragon eating tail (reincarnation), forming a circle around the pagan cross topped with the sun god. This is pure pagan sex, symbolizing reincarnation and the phallus and womb of procreation. An exact representation of the Egyptian Tau, which I often see around the neck of sun worshippers who call themselves "Christians", and between cleavage of Hollywood sex idols. Remember, to display this symbol is to "honor" the god it symbolizes, like the golden calf of the Jews. "Honor", in Biblical terms, is equivalent to worship. These symbols are a sign of worship; if you wear them, you give fallen angels authority over you, and will be deceived by what is going on around you, in your "church" and by the false religion now being set up. In deliverance services, many ministers require all jewelry to be removed, because it often has been dedicated by witches, or cursed and then remelted, or has pagan symbols. To wear a symbol or hang a symbol on the wall is to give certain powers "honor" -- which is worship -- and they can and will block your soul and open your spirit to deception, which is what fallen angels like Lucifer specialize in. These symbols are to be found in most "Christian" groups, explaining why America is becoming the world's mecca for witchcraft and satanism, crime and pornography, lust and unfaithfulness, deception and selfish ambition. Listen up, folks! Idol worship is not a big gold-plated buddha! It is usually an innocent looking ring, talisman, sunburst, or dreamcatcher hung on the wall! But don't ask a low-ranking, powerless and ignorant Wiccan or Master Mason -- ask somebody advanced, with power - the elite at the top. Let them tell you who Lucifer is, and the sun god, and the orgies and blood sacrifice. Fortunately, because fallen angels' time is almost up, these things are no longer secrets, and can be easily verified by anyone. They are desperate to get as many trapped as possible in their web of deceit - because they only have about 5 years left!

The New York Sun. Rising sun. This new (fall, 2002), New York publication is letting the pagan world know in no uncertain terms, which god they serve. The backers are a "Who's Who" of the sun cult.

Adobe Software. Eye of Horus. From a 2001 edition of "Image Ready" internet-prep software. This is the boldest representation of the ancient Egyptian "eye of Horus" (sun god) that I have seen to date. Rather amazing. Ancient paganism has absolutely exploded in America since 2000. Since "9-11" of September 2001, many, many corporations have adopted ancient symbols of demons and witchcraft, like a dark blanket was suddenly thrown over the tapestry of America.

Eye of Horus, the sun god of ancient Egyptian representation for Horus, the sun god, apparently worshiped (to display a symbol or mark is a form of honor, worship, sign of ownership) more openly today than any other time in history. Common in Hollywood, Freemasonry, the occult, corporate logos, Catholic (common here in European cathedrals), and Jewish charms and Cabalah.

Tomb Raider, Lara Croft / Pepsi promotion. Eye of the sun god Horus, inside a circle, inside a triangle, inside a circle. Whewww! Other symbols from the Pepsi campaign:

Such Sun Cult signs are found in most video games and Japanese anime. Believe me, this is no accident!

American Online (Time Warner). Version 7 software. Eye of Horus, sacred triangle, backlit with divinity rays of the sun. I cancelled my AOL account many years ago when I found out they allowed the CIA to install surveillance software on their server hubs. With this symbol they are announcing to the Brotherhood they are (and probably always were) Sun Cult agents.

Time Warner. Clearly the eye of sun god Horus. No wonder AOL merged with Time Warner! This symbol was so controversial, it was canned. It is now only used for Time Warner Cable. With AOL Time admitting they are under the authority of Lucifer (as all who use such symbols are) - you can bet everything they do is subversive, consciously - in the case of telephony - so be aware!

Columbia Broadcast System. CBS was founded in 1927, and began using "The Eye" in 1951. According to CBS's "Fifty Years of The Eye", logo designer William Golden's "original inspiration came while he was driving through Pennsylvania Dutch country, where he became intrigued by the hex symbols resembling the human eye drawn on Shaker barns to ward off evil spirits."
