Paths of Righteousness For His Names Sake

Brothers, how many of you are really willing to walk in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake? How many of you are really willing to walk the tough path, the road less traveled, the difficult roadway in order to get into the Kingdom of heaven? I think most readers here (insiders) have made that tough choice. But I ask this question more in a rhetorical sense. How many Christians here in the west are really willing to do that? Forsake all - homes, family, friends, jobs, careers and even our very lives to enter into the Kingdom? So much so that you view your salvation as that pearl of great price (Matt 13:46)?

You will find almost all Christians say they are willing, but are they really? Talk is cheap. Many people say many things and as often as not, they aren't true. People make many commitments they do not keep. Serving the Lord is the same way. Of this I am certain, most of the Christians I know who say they are saved will one day fall away. Brothers this is not a new theme, this is something that ancient Israel had to face before they entered into the promised land. Do you really want to serve the Lord?

*And Joshua said unto the people, Ye cannot serve the LORD: for he is an holy God; he is a jealous God; he will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins. If ye forsake the LORD, and serve strange gods, then he will turn and do you hurt, and consume you, after that he hath done you good. And the people said unto Joshua, Nay; but we will serve the LORD. And Joshua said unto the people, Ye are witnesses against yourselves that ye have chosen you the LORD, to serve him. And they said, We are witnesses. Now therefore put away, said he, the strange gods which are among you, and incline your heart unto the LORD God of Israel. And the people said unto Joshua, The LORD our God will we serve, and his voice will we obey.

The good news is that while two may fall away, another will come to the cross and may even endure to the end. But too often we see that lukewarmness and apostasy sets can set in to today's believers. Do you know what usually does it? I will tell you, It is essentially the same things that got ancient Israel in big trouble. It is usually some form of idolatry. In our world, it is not so much the actual worship of idols, but undue adoration and attachment to some of the things of this world. Brothers these things almost always are not evil in and of themselves but they do lead people astray. It can be love of one's social standing, love of ones country, love of one's race, love of ones children. None of these things are bad in and of themselves. But as soon as the love for one of these things leads us to disobey God's strict commandments we are in trouble. I have seen this before. Men with great ambition who want to climb the corporate ladder, doing all manner of evil in order to get the the top, yet claiming to be Christian. Or men who in their service to the country are ordered to to unspeakable wickedness (brutal murders, kidnappings, blackmail, run child porn sites, starting race wars, etc). I have seen men go astray for many different reasons. When men set idols in their hearts however small, they are giving the devil a major 'in' into their lives and souls.

I know a couple of my readers are upset with me because I have not praised all Israel has done to high heaven. While I truly and deeply love the Jewish people and strongly believe in the security of the state of Israel from her myriad of enemies, some of the things I have said do not line up with the Evangelical's message we have seen in the pulpit who seem to spend more time talking about Israel than about the gospel. So today, we are going to talk just for a second on why too often our love for Israel can turn into a form of Idolatry when we forget about the Gospel and what our Bibles tell us not only about the Lost state of the non-converted Jews, but also of the spiritual state of Israel in the last days.

Dear readers, God's opinion of last days Israel is not a very high one. In fact, it is down right shocking. Where do God's two witnesses get murdered? Is it New York? Beijing? Do they get murdered in Caracas or Lagos? Perhaps in Pretoria or Ulan Bator? Does it happen in Mexico City or Toronto? No. The two olive trees who stand in the very Presence of God who are sent to bear witness in the very last days are murdered in Israel.

And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified. And they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves. And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth. (Rev 11:8-10) instance that the actions of a reprobate world will change, the world will for once rejoice at the actions in Israel when God's holy witnesses they are murdered in the streets of Jerusalem. What I see as the primary problem today and why the witness of the Church towards Israel has no real spiritual power is that too many American evangelicals are working too hard to protect the secular state of Israel and are not concerned about the spiritual state of Israel. It is almost as if they must have some kind of worldly 'affirmation' of Israel state security in order to maintain their faith in God. Let me make this clear, God's plan for Israel is centered on bringing Israel into recognition and submission to their Messiah, NOT aiding Bibi Netanyahu's war against Iran. We must remember that all the kingdoms of this earth are under Luciferian control and that Rulership does not transfer to Christ until the 7th angel sounds his trumpet (Rev 11:15). All includes the state of Israel.

Brothers, I bring this up because you know what, too many Christians have set the secular state of Israel as an idol in their heart. God help the Christian who points out these or other passages out to other Christians. They they go against the 'six pointed star' idolatry that has swept up Western Christendom. They forget that Israel has rejected its Messiah. We as Christians need to pray that they accept and come to the Messiah with repentance and weeping so that God can restore them to God.

As I see it, too many Christians view this end times as some kind of celestial football game where we are supposed to support this state against that one and hate one leader and love another, when the whole world and its evil systems will be judged by the Living God. Listen up, Muslims and unconverted Jews have one thing in common - the most important thing in common, both have rejected Christ, the Messiah - the only way one can be reconciled to God. Also brothers, let me say this - We cannot be so pro-America that we forget God, we cannot be so pro-Israel that we cannot see where she is at spiritually. We cannot be so filled with hatred for China that we cannot see that this is more and more where the largest concentration of Christians now live. We as Christians need to remember that we are ambassadors of Christ (Eph 6:20), not America or Israel. We can get to hating Russia so much and forget she has a rich and ancient Christian tradition. So bear this fact in mind - the US State Department pays nice salaries to its ambassadors. They don't need you. The same with Israel. Do you know who needs you to fill an ambassadorial post? Jesus Christ. Will you fill that post?

Be warned, Christ's genuine ambassadors do not have diplomatic immunity down here. They are often roughed up, mocked, jailed, beaten imprisoned and even killed and from a worldly perspective, the pay is usually not the greatest, but God needs ambassadors down here who are neither afraid of the hatred of the world or the hoots and taunts of other so-called Christians. If you want to know how your TRUE message of Christ and the gospel will be received, take a look at how the God's two witnesses were treated. Do you know how those two witnesses will probably be treated? They will probably be called 'Anti-Semitic' ravers, 'Religious lunatics' as they denounce the sins of both Israel and the world. But this is the problem - The world and the majority of its 'Christians' still don't get it. They don't really understand what this salvation things is really all about. But you know what? There is a reason for it. If their first love were Christ (Messiah) and their desires were his desires, their first hope for Israel would be that she be converted and come to the one whom they rejected and continue to reject.

You see, for too many US evangelicals (whose leaders are often secretly in the pay of Israel's secret services) they would rather see the secular state of Israel secure and every Jewish soul in hell. They don't really care about the Spiritual state of Israel. They care about maintaining a religious-prophetic narrative that has made them rich and gives them power - that revenue stream and that political-religious power - that is what is more important to them, not the whole counsel of God. Some of my readers may pull away because I don't have the so called 'Star of David' prominently displayed on the site and praise every move Israel makes. Well if that is what you are expecting, this is the wrong site - there are a plethora of Mossad run sites out there run by powerful well known pastors and evangelicals. I am not one of them, for the powers that today run the state is Israel are not the least bit interested in converting Jews to Christ; bringing her to her Messiah. They have another agenda and one of the more important is to keep a strong voting and politically potent pro-Israel lobby here in America so that Billions of dollars can flow to the Israeli defense Establishment.

Please do not get me wrong, I believe fervently in a strong Israel. Those people have suffered enormously and deserve a home of their own that is fully defensible, yes even with Nuclear weapons. What I am saying is that there is another agenda and one that most do not get or probably more relevantly, do not want to get. These so called pastors who are in the pay of others are being manipulated and used and their ultimate goal is not Christ but other more worldly agendas. Why do I write these things? Because I see a very deep and dark deception coming with regards to Israel. One that is going to shake the faith of millions of Christians. I cannot say exactly how it will come about so I will not speculate, but the spirit bears witness that we must be careful - there is something not quite right with much of the narrative we have heard and believed about Israel and who is living there and who many of her leaders are really descendents of and why so many of her policies are so arrogant, violent and seemed specifically designed to turn the world against Israel and the Jews rather than sympathetically.

Yet and still I see the very real and deep danger, probably significantly better than the most pro-Israel Christians out there. More than most do because for many, many years I have studied (really studied) Nazi Germany and the Holocaust. I have studied it, from how the Nazi's used the power of propoganda, to the rapacious and greedy nature of the state apparatus for stolen wealth, the human slavery, the racial obsessions,, the persecution of Jews, Christians, Communists, Poles, Roma's, Freemasons and just about anyone who had wealth, organization and was not subservient to the Nazi regime. And then there were the medical experiments. I am extremely sensitive to the anti-Semitic trends in our world today; those that are seen by ordinary people and those that are not. Let anyone here accuse me of Antisemitism and may the Lord God gently but firmly rebuke them for such a false and heinous accusation. Amen.

I am deeply saddened and appalled at the things now transpiring in Europe and elsewhere that always seems to target the Jews. But as I have told my readers time and time again, long before these trends we have seen today took place, I told you this was going to happen. I warned you that the Islamic-Nazi Alliance was going to move together against the Jews and Christians and undermine specifically the Christian tradition of the west. This is the devils target and the two afore mentioned movements are his tools. Right now, they appear (which are very deceiving) to be working against each other. The Far Right are ranting about Muslim invasions. An invasion that has been allowed to go on for about 20 years and no one stopped it but was actively encouraged by the powers that were. Now you have whole sections of countries that are effectively under Islamic law and control. This was all part of a plan. A plan to bring them in, create deep social divisions inside western nations with bureaucrats for years even showing 'tolerance' to extreme Islamic elements, rather than sending them back to their originating nations. These trends thus stirred up hatred and anger. Why? So that when the time was right (now) the far right (Nazi's) would have a lightning rod issue to gain support throughout Europe. What is the platform of the Neo-Nazi group PEGIDA? What is their rallying cry that has garnered them more and more support across Europe? Anti-Islam, but other elements of the extreme right are also moving to remove the Jews from Europe.

While European political leaders speak of Auschwitz with the solemn formula of "never again," it increasingly seems meaningless. Surveys show that in most European countries, including Germany, a growing number of people want to turn the page, and say they want forget about the Holocaust in a way they do not say they want to forget about, for instance, the Crucifixion. - A Europe Without Jews

Will this new crop of European Leaders and American give Europe exactly what Hitler wanted, a 'Jew Free' Europe? Yes. I think they will. The above article discusses the recent Holocaust Memorial ceremony, but leaves on one critical thing that I noticed that really bothered me and still does to this day. What was that? I watched Obama and Merkel stand together and talk about 'never again' while they both and directly supported Nazi-ism in Ukraine. Nazi-ism directly and specifically supported to start new racial conflict. The only person who was dis-invited to the ceremony was the man who is now fighting those very same Nazi's, Vladimir Putin. Yet very few see these things in this light. They see leaders crying crocodile tears over 6 Million Jews and don't see these same leaders erecting swastikas in Ukraine.

Who really won WWII? Looking at what the leader of the so-called Free world is now funding to the tune of billions of IMF dollars in Ukraine SPECIFICALLY to start a race war against the very same race group Hitler hated (Russians), I would say the Nazi's won. They have fooled us all and hope to erect new fascist and racist regimes while the world is not looking... while they cry their crocodile tears over holocaust victims, and at the same time, sharpen their daggers and build their camps to bring in another one. Don't let Obama's dark skin fool you. The US establishment could never have gotten away with this if the President were not a Black man they could control. If the President were white, had black hair and a funny little mustache and had a German accent, Black folks would be in the streets protesting. Today they support him with 91% approval ratings. They know how to neutralize potential political opposition.

But this is problem of antisemitism and it is one that I completely understand so I write on these issues with extreme sensitivity. Antisemitism is real and I am not going to give the enemies of the Jewish people any cannon fodder. I have spoken out faithfully and fearlessly about the rise of antisemitism all these years, as well as the rise of Neo-fascism. When others thought I was a nut job and mocked me (yes they did), I warned. Now we see these things happening right now in Europe. I mean, how can you have a conference in antisemitism in Germany in the midst of all of this hate and not invite any Jews? I will tell you how. You do it when you want to send a clear but subtle message just what they think of Jews - they don't want them. There is no way this was some innocent oversight and wiser souls may have figured out that yes, it really may be time to flee Europe and head back to Israel. Why? Because Hitler is going to return far more deceptively and will be far more subtle than the last one, but his spiritual descendent will indeed return.

Most will not see it because they will not want to see, those others will see and shrug their shoulders and say just as the Germans did back in the 30's, "Hitler brought us prosperity, I now have a job, who cares if a few Jews get their heads based in? My kids eat and I have a new car." They won't even care if the camps come back as long as their is hot bread at the bakery and heat in their homes. The propaganda of the day will keep them full of the proper hate and provide ample diversions so that it can all continue with little to no interference from the people. Look at who the US media is spitting hate at today, Putin the guy who is fighting Nazi's. Look where American and German money is going, to aid the Nazi's. Propaganda works, it works very well especially when people want to believe the lies they are told. The whole system will come back because there will be enormous money in it.

On 8 August 1938, prisoners from Dachau concentration camp were sent to the town of Mauthausen near Linz, Austria, to begin the construction of a new camp. The site was chosen as a site for a slave labour camp because of the nearby granite quarry, and due to its proximity to Linz.[\[5\]](#) Although the camp was, from the beginning of its existence, controlled by the German state, it was founded by a private company as an economic enterprise. The owner of the Wiener-Graben quarry (the Marbacher-Bruch and Bettelberg quarries) was a DEST Company: an acronym for Deutsche Erd- und Steinwerke GmbH. The company, led by Oswald Pohl, who was also a high-ranking official of the SS, rented the quarries from the City of Vienna in 1938 and started the construction of the Mauthausen camp.[\[3\]](#) A year later, the company ordered the construction of the first camp at Gusen. The granite mined in the quarries had previously been used to pave the streets of Vienna, but the Nazi authorities envisioned a complete reconstruction of major German towns in accordance with plans of Albert Speer and other proponents of Nazi architecture,[\[8\]](#) for which large quantities of granite were needed. The money needed for the construction of the Mauthausen camp was gathered from a variety of sources, including commercial loans from Dresdner Bank and Prague-based Escompte Bank, the so-called Reinhardt's fund (meaning money stolen from the inmates of the concentration camps themselves); and from the German Red Cross. - Mauthausen-Gusen concentration camp.

Money is what 'made the Reich turn' brothers and the new Reich they are building will be no different. There has to be an economic incentive.

Soviet Officers At Mauthausen Concentration Camp

Like nearby Mauthausen, the Gusen camp also rented inmates out to various local businesses as slave labourers. In October 1941, several huts were separated from the Gusen sub-camp by barbed wire and turned into a separate Prisoner of War Labour Camp (German: Kriegsgefangenenarbeitslager). This camp had many prisoners of war; mostly Soviet officers. By 1942 the production capacity of both Mauthausen and Gusen had reached its peak. Gusen was expanded to include the central depot of the SS, where various goods, which had been seized from occupied territories, were sorted and then dispatched to Germany.[\[13\]](#) Local quarries and businesses were in constant need of a new source of labour as more and more Austrians were drafted into the Wehrmacht.

This is what so many of our history books fail to teach us. The Nazi's concentration camp system was a massive and highly profitable BUSINESS VENTURE.

The production output of Mauthausen-Gusen exceeded that of each of the five other large slave labour centres, including: Auschwitz-Birkenau, Flossenbürg, Gross-Rosen, Marburg and Natzweiler-Struthof, in terms of both production quota and profits.^[15] The list of companies using slave labour from the Mauthausen-Gusen camp system was long, and included both national corporations and small, local firms and communities. Some parts of the quarries were converted into a Mauser machine pistol assembly plant. In 1943, an underground factory for the Steyr-Daimler-Puch company was built in Gusen. Altogether, 45 larger companies took part in making KZ Mauthausen-Gusen one of the most profitable concentration camps of Nazi Germany, with more than 11,000,000 Reichsmark^[note 3] in profits in 1944 alone (EUR 144 million in 2015). Some of the companies using Mauthausen slave laborers were:^[15]

- DEST cartel
- Accumulatoren-Fabrik AFA (the main producer of batteries for German U-Boats)
- Bayer (main German producer of medicines and medications)
- Deutsche Bergwerks- und Hüttenbau
- Linz-based Eisenwerke Oberdonau (the largest World War II steel supplier for the German Panzer tanks^[18])
- Flugmotorenwerke Ostmark (aeroplane engine manufacturer)
- Otto Eberhard Patronenfabrik (munitions works)
- Heinkel and Messerschmitt (Heinkel-Sud facilities in Floridsdorf, Vienna-Schwechat and Zwölfaxing, and other aeroplane factories, also a V-2 rocket factory)
- Hofherr und Schrenz
- Lederkopfwerke Bollomark
- Teufel UJJ
- Österreichische Sauerwerks (arms producer)
- Rax-Werke (machinery and V-2 rockets)
- Steyr-Daimler-Puch (arms and vehicles)
- Universale Hoch und Tiefbau (construction of tunnels in the Loibl Pass)

Prisoners were also 'rented out' as slave labour, and were exploited in various ways, such as working for local farms, for road construction, reinforcing and repairing the banks of the Danube, and the construction of large residential areas in Sankt Georgen[3] as well as being forced to excavate archaeological sites in Spielberg. - Mauthausen-Gusen concentration camp.

Image is of the 'Stairs of Death' where prisoners had to manually haul very heavy bricks up it as part of their daily labor.

Dear readers. Gas chambers were not the only method for killing prisoners in these camps. They also perfected methods of killing them with work.

The political function of the camp continued in parallel with its economic role. Until at least 1942, it was used for the imprisonment and murder of Germany's political and ideological enemies, both real and imagined.[2][22] The camp served the needs of the German war machine and also carried out extermination through labour. When the inmates were totally exhausted after having worked in the quarries for 12 hours a day, or if they were too ill or too weak to work, they were then transferred to the Revier ("Krankenrevier", sick barrack) or other places for extermination. - Mauthausen-Gusen concentration camp.

This was big, really big business. Why am I telling you all of this now? Because the sins of the past are not past. We in America have a similar system right now in Unicolor. No, we don't exterminate people yet... YET... in those camps, but in the 'political camps' like Guantanamo we do, though their will be hot denials that this has happened. We have such facilities all over the nation. There will be lots of lies about it, but this I know because I know a CIA case officer who was taken to one and held incommunicado (when another Federal employee did not want him to appear at a certain meet). Let me tell you something else you are not going to hear or want to hear - this could not exist without the approval of the Justice Department and the President. Let no one tell you they did not know? What city did Obama come from? Chicago. Who is the Mayor there now? Was he not Obama's CHIEF OF STAFF?

This stuff is happening right here in America and the people are not being told and when they are told they don't and won't believe it... until it is them PERSONALLY who are taken to one and cannot contact a lawyer and are shackled to a wall half naked in a room with a temperature of 42 degrees with an A/C blowing directly on them for days. As long as they have the NFL and movies, the American people will let Auschwitz be erected on the White House lawn and the people will find a way to mentally 'justify' it so they can go back and finish watching the game.

Where does this lead and why am I telling you this. Listen up because only a few can tell you things things.

The Wehrmacht lost the war. The Luftwaffe lost the war. The civilians lost the war. The Nazis, however, did not lose the war. The Nazis got away.

It is true that a tiny minority of individual Nazis lost the war. Göbbels, Göring, Kaltenbrunner, and the man claiming to be Hess lost the war. Perhaps it is even true that Hitler and Himmler lost the war as well, though forensic evidence to the effect is notably scant.

The Nazi Party and the S.S., as organizations, got away intact. They got away with the money, the Reichsbank treasury, $15,000,000,000 in 1945 money. This included the tooth gold. Guinness calls it the world's largest unsolved robbery. Then there was all the stolen art, pieces of which, to this day, occasionally surface. The Nazis did very well in the war, from a business viewpoint. War is a business. It is fought for material gain. The Nazis gained materially, and lived to spend it thus, they won the war. They did not win as much as they wanted to win, but who does? They did win a great deal. What they lost was territory. What they gained was treasure, new friends, and experience. - The Bormann Plan

Those of you wanting some other confirmation of Bormann's survival can read this one, it is very, very good. Where did many of them wind up? The came to the US, with many Working for the CIA! If you think I am off my nut you can read the official report by the DOJ here. They tried real hard to keep this secret. The gist of this is that the Nazi's got away. They had a plan to reconstitute their empire and they are going to do it. If you want to know why you are not hearing about this, consider that many of these guys went and worked for the CIA. Now the CIA was behind the coup in Ukraine, they are the ones who overthrew the democratically elected government and put these Nazi's in power in one of the most poorly disguised covert operations in CIA history. More here. Do you really want to know why you aren't hearing this and who really covertly owns and controls your media? If you do click on over and read this and then you can understand that when the CIA does a coup, they don't just target another nation, they target you and your media. That is why there is dead silence and in your MSM news sources. They (all of them who have remained silent) have become the tentacles of this 'New Order' (a term patented by IG Farben) they are erecting. Who really runs America? I think the Nazi's running around in Ukraine with US help, aid, political support and money are a darn good clue. Guantanamo's torture chambers should give you a clue. These racist cops gunning down Black men should give you a clue while the always get away with it. But it is not just America, Europe as well is infected. This is why I said some time ago. Black America and even most Jews here in America, they haven't got a clue as to what they are really up against, not even the slightest notion.

Dear readers, as I close this out today let me make this plain. I am not here to tickle your ears. If you are expecting me to carry the Mossad line of Religious propaganda here on Watson's Web, I am not going to do it. I love Israel and want to end the specter of antisemitism and hate but that is not my main goal. I want to see Israel come to her Messiah and that is the very subtle but absolutely key difference between what I am doing here and what an intelligence front masquerading as a televangelist is trying to do.

So those of you who want to pull up stakes because I am not in the pay of Israel, the CIA, the GOP or the DNC, then I invite you to do so now. In fact, I request it. I am not a bought and paid for minister. Never have been and never will be. I want to walk in the paths of Righteousness for HIS names sake, not for the sake of Israel, America, Babylon, Goldman Sachs, the CIA, the NSA, Obama or any other entity than the God who send his son Jesus Christ so that ALL MEN, Jew and Gentile; Arab and Asian can obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus. And if that is not YOUR primary goal, you (not me) need to, as the saying goes, 'get with the program!'

May God grant all of you wisdom to discern this message and walk with care, wisdom and joy in these very last days.
