What Is Truth?

By Mark S. Watson

“You can't handle the truth!” So says Jack Nicholson in one of his best and most memorable roles, in the movie, 'A Few Good Men'. That performance always sticks in my mind when someone says to me that they want to hear the truth. In almost every case. They don't. I have met very, very few people who really honestly want to hear or are emotionally capable of dealing with it. People say they want it but in reality they don't. Very, very few of my own readers really wants it. More often than not they want tidbits of information to share with others to demonstrate their superiority or 'settle' an argument with someone who they think is 'deceived'. But people are not ready for the unvarnished truth. Christians are no exception. They are in many ways worse off than those who have never known Christ. Believe me, I know what I am talking about. I have run this site for eight years now and conversed with all kinds of folks. The ones most open to the truth are usually non-Christians. Catholics invariably have to go and check with the Pope before they will believe anything that does not emanate from Rome. Protestants (in America), especially those in the religious right are so hooked in with the false god of Americanism that if it assaults this god, they become offended and walk away.

Pig Level Thinking

Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.
(Mat 7:6)

The Spirit of God will lead us into all Truth. The devil can only offer lies. Lies made up to look like truth. But in our world, especially in 21st century America, lies and diversion have been made to look so attractive that when the truth is told, it is not only ignored, it is often openly scorned. Why? Because it doesn't feel good and it can be very challenging, emotionally and psychologically and because it is not dressed up in a skimpy nightgown people simply turn away from it. I have observed a great many people and their real attitude to truth. Most prefer to ignore it, perhaps avoid it is a much better word. It is one thing to not know where to find it, it is quite another to deliberately turn away from hearing it, when it is told to you. This is what is happening today in the West, especially in America. People are so truth averse that it is almost a pathology. I am watching what is happening in our economy, the falling house prices, rising prices for food, staples and energy, the massive and historically unprecedented bailouts the Fed is still handing over to our banks to keep them operating and the people still cannot put two and two together and get four. They are so stuck in irrelevant political paradigms that they cannot see how utterly sold out they have been.

When you attempt to tell them that this 'sold out' thing is in the past tense, as opposed to present tense, they are unable to come to terms with it. It seems just beyond the reach of their ability to comprehend. Their eyes glaze over as though you were speaking Swahili to them. There are many reasons for this. First our education system, from K-12 and even our institutions for higher learning have been polluted with the false god of political correctness and Higher education has been undermined by the corrupting influence of corporate donations. Young people do not, by and large, know how to think critically. They know how to play the game, but not how to think. They have been educated to function and 'succeed' within a system that now falling apart. Very, very few really understand the consequences of their mis-education. But many are learning it the hard way, they are learning it when they find out that $90 thousand education cannot land them a job decent enough to even pay of their school loans. They get stuck in retail sales, temp work or get trapped in a low paying job as a State employee.

One of the biggest obstacles to the ability of Americans to see and hear truth is the affluence that American ignorance rewarded her followers with. 'I got mine', was the universal scream of the American voter and dim-witted 'valley girl' linguistic patters of speech were a sign of a proper upper middle class upbringing. America became synonymous with getting rich, or at least comfortable in an economic sense and being 'connected' but ignorant¹ was the way to remain so. When Americans go the polls, the number one issues are always about money; 'are you better off now than you were four years ago', kinds of speeches fill the airwaves. Americans want more. They want a bigger house, a bigger car, a nicer vacation, a boob job, facelift, a new speedboat. America is all about the material things (and the irresponsible sexual gratification) that are available to Americans... via debt. Debt is the hook that makes our lifestyle possible.

It is the way America works. America has become synonymous with debt and it is that world of debt that is now coming unraveled. America's debt system has sustained a mortal wound. Like a man in one of those old westerns who is 'gut shot', he may live a while longer. Long enough to still shoot it out with the good guy, but he is dead already and nothing can be done to fix his wound.

A Mighty Change Is In The Wind

It is all going to change. America will not survive in her current form and you cannot trust our political class to change anything except the location of whatever wealth you think you have left; from your possession, to theirs. They are wholly incapable of real change and those that want to bring about real change, only find that the system is staked against them. Around the nation groups are banding together to put pressure on our leaders to make changes. Some are calling for the left and right to unite and make a stand. Others are trying to work within existing structures to bring about the much needed change. There are increasing calls for change from a number of quarters and this is one of the reasons why Obama has been so popular. People really believe that he can and will change things. I fully admit he is very seductive and his speeches are good. He knows all the right things to say. But he cannot change things even if he wanted to, and from what I can gather from insiders in his campaign, he is drifting further and further into the arms of the beast that controls Washington. It will not be possible at the juncture for anyone inside Washington to change things. Change will come from outside of Washington and only when there is such a cry in America that the people demand it... and not just with votes. That will only come with significant economic pain. I am not talking about high gas prices, that is a minor inconvenience. I am talking about having to pay $1000 a month for gasoline, $1000 a month for heat, $20 for milk and 20-30% of Americans have lost their homes. That is the kind of pain that is on the Horizon. It is coming like a Mack Truck with the pedal to the metal.. and broken brakes. It cannot be stopped. The Average America is standing in the middle of the road, like a deer in its headlights not knowing he is about to become economic roadkill.

How this new, real change happens can only be surmised, I have no unique view into the future, but what we can do is go from the known and then move to the unknown. What we know (if you are willing to hear the truth) is that the US economy is in a tailspin and a complete Global financial reorganization will eventually take place. I am not talking about a few small bank failures and moderate inflation. I am talking about a fundamental reorganization of the system that put America at the pinnacle of economic and military power in the post World War II world. I am talking about a significant fall in the standard of living for Americans. As the average American's eyes glaze over when such statements reach their ears, as though the speaker were speaking ancient Sanskrit, even they are dimly aware that something is wrong. But who and how are these economic changes going to transpire if the political paralysis continues in Washington as it is certain to.

Outside Influences

I see two major outside influences that will drive the change in Washington. Foreign governments with whom the US has significant trade and other economic relationships with and the fifty individual state governments of the US. These are already beginning to lay down important 'gauntlets' to the US government, mostly dealing in the realm of financial corruption. It is already happening. Sadly, few really comprehend what is really going on. On June 26th, The states of Washington and California began proceedings against Countrywide Financial, one of the companies that are widely felt to have been the most egregious in its predatory lending.

Washington State has a charge sheet that can be found on its site. The California Attorney General and former Governor of that State, Jerry Brown has also files charges with the State of Illinois, these will be landmark suits because the courts and the Federal government have made real attempts to gut the ability of the states to regulate (ie, file criminal charges against) the banks. I want to stress this: The Federal Government has facilitated and protected this financial fraud and fought those that tried to stop it.

Now that charges have been filed in several states, the federal Government will attempt to come to the aid of these (alleged) financial predators. Thankfully, the work of Governor Spitzer was not in vain and others who have some backbone should be applauded and supported. This is, in my estimation a very important story. One that cannot be ignored. This is because these mortgage lenders have some very powerful friends in the Congress and this administration. They also have a lot of 'business friendly' judges sitting on the Federal Judiciary, many of whom I believe to be 'on the take'. The bottom line is that while the anger at these mortgage lenders is real, politicians in Washington (Democrats and Republicans) will move to protect them from what appears to be egregious criminal activity. This is the kind of fight that will one day lead to open revolt by the states. No I am not talking about armed conflict per se, but a revolt that takes the form of legal rebellion. Refusing to acknowledge, implement or enforce Federal laws and rulings that are clearly meant to protect an ongoing criminal enterprise. Now while I say this, many of you still do not get it. Many of you simply do not want to get it. To say that predatory lending was aided and abetted by this administration is no 'reach'. To say that the hyperinflation Bernanke is creating by bailing out our banks is no 'stretch'. To say that the State Houses are fed up with 'unfunded mandates' from the federal Government, stealing its National Guard² to send to Iraq so that States are no longer equipped to deal with the several emergencies that they now face would be an understatement. Simply put, the US Federal Government has become a criminal entity that answers only to a small group of insiders who know how to work the system to their benefit and the detriment of the nation. The States sooner or later will be forced to deal with the rampant criminality in Washington. The political class in Washington's own rapaciousness will compel it. The States will not want to do it, and may look for an out, but I know the kind of entity that has a stranglehold on Washington. It is not going to let go until the last cent is drained from America, the last note of debt can be written and the last McMansion is auctioned off. This coming rebellion will be a fiscal imperative. The cartels who have run this nation are running it into a fiscal abyss. It will literally be 'fight or starve'. People will choose to fight.

The states around the nation are laying down the gauntlet to Washington.

- Arizona has not only not ratified the Real ID implementation in the state, but now specifically forbids it.
- Oklahoma Just passed a joint resolution to serve notice to the Federal Government to stay within the bounds of the Constitution.
- California is suing the government for the right to regulate greenhouse gases. A direct assault on the most powerful lobbies in Washington, the Oil and energy lobby.

Around the nation little by little gauntlets are being thrown down. The Union is not secure.

Yet it is also likely that other outside influences will gain even more sway in Washington. Entities that already have enormous clout in the House, Senate and the Executive branch. Entities like China. They already drive more of the agenda in Washington than most know. They have the kind of power now (or soon will) to shut America down. Shut down her telecommunications, docks, retail stores, start inner-city unrest, cripple her National Defense. China already has its hooks so far into America, our nation is no longer really our own³. China has the ability to make significant changes in America. All she would have to do is claim critical shortages in key materials and consumer goods that America imports from China. She need not worry about American nuclear threats. Thanks to Bill Clinton, her Nuclear weapons can withstand a nuclear attack by the US; First Strike or Retaliatory. Their paid agent did a good Job. When you own the leader of your enemy, you don't need to defeat them militarily. This is a key victory as far as 21st Century warfare is concerned. The ability to control a nation, gut her defenses and drive her internal policies without ever having to fire a shot.

² This was a clearly unconstitutional move by Bush.

What is the truth here? America has already been conquered, from nations without and by traitors from within. It is not an empty victory nor is it one that necessarily precludes the use of arms at some later date. The simple fact is China's ability to move in and subvert America's political class is pretty much run its course. But our our political class has already been sold out to various interests. It does not matter if they have sold out to China, Russia, Organized Crime, Drug Cartels, Big Oil, or Big banking. The reality is just as I have stated; your politicians do not work for you anymore. You, the American voter are a sick joke, your collective idiocy is an inside joke. Even now, many Senators and Congressmen hang up on their constituents when they call. One of my own Senators was caught doing this and was called out about it on a local radio station. These are the kinds of leaders we have in Washington. The only constituents they listen to are Jackson, Lincoln, or Cleavland⁴.

Truth. You are not going to get it today. The Truth will put you in the grave faster than a bullet. When I make critical discoveries or my excellent sources tell me the stuff that is going on in the world, I cannot help but be dismayed. Truly dismayed. When I am tempted to post it I have to ask myself some questions. Would my readers get it, I mean really understand it? Some yes, most no. Would any of them really change their behavior if they knew? Most would not, a couple might. How many would simply reject it and say to themselves, 'It can't be true'? A great many. I say this not just about the average Christian (whose mind is still very much the property of the great deceiver) but even those who have a pretty good idea of what is going on. From time to time I converse with folks who read my material. On the rare occasions I feel led to share (very obliquely) just some of the minor tidbits of information I do not post on the site, they reject it, or simply stop writing. They just can't deal with the truth. I have been doing this now for eight years and I am here to tell you, the vast majority of you are not ready for it. Perhaps one in a thousand is, but most are not. They are still clinging to the Internet junk pile of pseudo conspiracies and rehashed second hand rumors. I have read and studied and frankly, forgotten more information on Aliens, The CFR, the Trilateral Commission, The WEF, Bilderbergs, the Illuminati et, al than most of the so called 'authorities' on the net ever knew. I know where these guys are coming from. I know that each of these groups (yes, even the alien stuff) all has a root in important truths and realities that many still fail to grasp. But much of the real truth that lies behind the facade of these well known organizations are not to be found on the web. Some sites do allude to them, but they usually don't last long. This is the world that I often talk about in terms of the bridge that runs between organized crime, big oil, big banking, international Trade in both legal and illegal goods and America's best known politicians. The 'real deal' important meetings are not at 'secret' Bilderberg meetings or even at 'secret' WEF⁵ meets. It is done in old broken down office buildings, abandoned warehouses and at construction sites at midnight, where the bodies of those who got in the way are disposed of. This is where our most powerful politicians, the criminal underworld and the heads of well known Financial institutions and corporations meet to plan the next series of 'accidents' for those people who have become more than a minor annoyance. Within weeks of those meets, journalists, bloggers, local politicians, lawyers and members of the economic competition have single car accidents, hang themselves in 'suicides', die suddenly of heart attacks, get beaten to a pulp by 'unknown assailants' or are the unfortunate victim of 'gang violence'. Sometimes they have their houses burn down while the Newspapers tell us that the well known non-smoker was smoking in bed.

This is the real world. This is how the American system works. Don't kid yourself. Political poison is what makes the system go 'round. This is the hard unvarnished truth about America. We are not living in a Republic or a Democracy. We are living in the most corrupt kleptocracy the world had ever known and only America's lavish lifestyle has kept the kleptocrats safe behind the facade of democracy. This is the reality of America. Let the facts speak for themselves. Since Ronald Reagan entered office, the federal Government signed your name to almost 10 trillion dollars of debts. Where did the money go? To a hodge podge of defense contractors, medical insurance companies, bankers, agribusinesses, telecommunications corporations. They have brought America nothing but death, destruction, sky high medical bills, rising food and energy prices, a decimated Social Security Trust Fund, crumbling infrastructure and a mode of transportation that most will soon no longer be able to afford to operate.

This has been the effect of this Kleptocracy. The policies that set these things in motion were created in corporate board rooms, paid for with campaign donations, and implemented by people you voted for. Yes, I do mean you⁶. This means that we have all been fooled, one level or another. The real question is this, and it is crucial; do we remain in deception once we see the truth and vote for this two headed hydra⁷ that has stolen our nation from us or do we make a real change? How many Americans are really ready to make a break with their mental shackles and stop voting for this hydra? Watson's estimate? About 10% of the population.

This is why I can only tell my reader this. You must, absolutely must...

5 World Economic Forum

6 Unless there is one of you who can honestly say they never voted for a Democrat or Republican in the past 28 years. You can add your name to the list of folks that have been deceived. I have to include my name on it because Once, back in 1984, I made that mistake. I'll never to that again.

7 Democrats and Republicans.

Change Your Psychology.

This is the key. When it comes to politics you must decide that the lesser of two evils... isn't an option. One evil may be able to make itself look 'good' but the same evil entity is behind the scenes pulling the strings. America has a real choice. Always has. There have been a plethora of smaller political parties that could have been voted for, but there is a major stronghold of deceit, a lie that almost every American accepts as the truth. What is that lie? Don't vote third party, 'they can't win' or you 'will only throw your vote away'. It is usually followed by another one; 'well, you don't want candidate X in there do you?' So they vote for Candidate Y. This is the hook that keeps the hydra in power. It works every time. It will work in 2008. Thus those pesky little details like that fact that the 'change' candidate is getting money from the same folks that the non-change candidates are getting it, only more of it, goes unmarked. This is how anyone who is still capable of thought can become a political 'prophet'. There is no need for an epiphany, God has given you all the tools you need to enter this realm. The prophecies of the future polices of our leaders are written on the checks of the campaign donors.

Lawyers will get an opportunity to sue big corporations. Social Security will be relatively safe, the bankers will be able to run for cover for more bailouts as their debt pyramids collapse, your kids will continue to be forced to go to school and not learn anything. The predatory lending will continue, Medical bills will continue to head upwards, big media will kill Internet radio and be able to seize iPods on airplanes and your cable bill will will go up by about 30%. The war will be run more by Blackwater than by the US Army, costing us an awful lot of money. Domestic Spying? Obama has already lied to us on that and he hasn't even been elected yet⁸!

Figuring out the future of our nation does not take an Einstein. It is really very, very easy. The problem is that the people have a ton a psychological baggage that prevents them from seeing the truth. It is the lie of the two-party hydra, hissing into their minds. It is a self serving lie that says that only criminals or those in the pay of them can govern. Americans, by and large cannot make the critical leap of intellectual fortitude that says, 'that is not true'. It takes brains and courage to say that and mean it. Brains and Courage are not typically American traits anymore. Sadly, years of conditioning of the baby boomers make them the most hopeless in being able to rid themselves of this mental Samsonite which sends them running after false Messiah's of America's two-headed political Hydra.

The Real Christ For Real Christians

Christians are to have our minds renewed by Christ and the Holy Spirit. This is imperative, especially in these days of almost universal deceit.

And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

(Rom 12:2)

Too many Christians are thinking like the rest of the world. We Christians, while are are still in this world and have certain responsibilities that are tied to his world are not of this present evil age. Christians have lived too long in the sun. They are now acting and most importantly thinking like the children of this present age. This shows itself in the psuedo Christianity of its religious leaders. Those who use the scriptures, but deny so many of Christs most important commandments. It shows itself in the political support for either one of the two heads of America's political hydra. Those that support it have erred greatly and are walking down a path that does not lead to life. This sounds harsh does it not? It says that God is going to hold us accountable for supporting evil. But that is what the scriptures teach us. You cannot support the wickedness of these two political parties and call yourself a genuine Christian. It is not possible. The lies, thefts, treasons, murders, tortures and even worse crimes that you can only find on out of the way books and blogs describe are part of the spiritual fruit of this hydra. The few genuine Christians out there know better. They know the poisonous brood of vipers that make up her nest and avoid it. Truth never comes from the serpent, his brood or his friends.

The Hidden Truths

(or Back to Basics)

Many of today's biggest stories are not being told to us. The most important one that I see is the rising, in your face, unflinching persecution that Christians are undergoing in Asia and the Islamic world. Often Christians are called 'political prisoners' as though they were some kind of violent revolutionaries. Here is where language, terminology and long term societal prejudices have an enormous effect on how people perceive the problem. With the careful use of language it is possible to frame the issue in terms of the use of state power to control political dissent, rather than the real issue of religious freedom and tolerance. This way the masses of Americans never know that in many nations on earth, it is open season on the followers of Christ.

No one wants to hear it. Least of which are many of the followers of the 'Christ' of America. Who these people worship is unknown to me, as it is wholly and completely divorced from the Christ that the Apostles preached and is borne witness to in the scriptures.

More evidence of the season. - If you are a Christian in a leadership role in your church, you need to read this news item. I find it nightmarish and disturbing.

Religious Americans: My faith isn't the only way.

Among the more startling numbers in the survey, conducted last year by the Pew Forum on Religion and Public Life: 57 percent of evangelical church attenders said they believe many religions can lead to eternal life, in conflict with traditional evangelical teaching. In all, 70 percent of Americans with a religious affiliation shared that view, and 68 percent said there is more than one true way to interpret the teachings of their own religion.

Reading further into the article it became increasingly obvious to me that a large portion of religious Americans (or at least those polled) are at best "Christian" in name only or at worse "lukewarm".

Jesus, "I know your deeds, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were either one or the other! So, because you are lukewarm-neither hot nor cold-I am about to spit you out of my mouth." (Re 3:15-16 NIV) – From The Great Separation

What did Christ say about this? Was he not perfectly crystal clear?

Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep. All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them. I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.
(Joh 10:7-10)

Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.
(Joh 14:6)

There is no other way to God. No other way to obtain the forgiveness of sins, no other way to get to heaven. None. Anyone who tells you otherwise is a thief, a liar and the truth is not in him.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.
(Joh 10:1)

These are truths that are frankly, no longer preached in the pulpits across America. They have found a new, more 'tolerant' Christ, one that does not punish sin and rebellion. One that does not send people to hell. One that loves sin and does not require man to repent. This new 'christ' is the devil who has put on holy robes to deceive the parishioner.

There are many religions that are preaching doctrines of devils and I am not just talking about the Jehovah's Witnesses and Mormons. There are mainline denominations as well that have left the doctrines of their founders to follow after this new sin-tolerant Christ. But how can parishioners believe God's word when so many churches discourage people from bringing their bibles to Church or have new translations that have been put together, translated, edited by those who hate the cross of Christ and whose entire purpose for creating new translations is to change the doctrines of Christianity to make them conform to the norms of this world? Very few really understand the deep and profound implications of what has happened to the American Church. But once one does, it becomes clear as to why things are so messed up. Men who hate the Gospel of Christ finance many of her well known ministries, publish their books, finance their movies, keep them on TV and publish well known 'Christian' musicians works. It is done with a Gospel that sounds like the real thing but often is just a spiritual placebo. Utterly useless in saving souls.

The real Church of God and the real people of God do those things that please God. They are a bright light and a testament to an ever darkening world. Their lives are full of light and love and they are not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ. They may not run around with a bible in hand, bashing people over the head with it 24 hours a day, but the lost can see that there is something quite different in the way they conduct themselves. They are always honest, truthful, helpful, kind, generous, upright and dependable. This does not mean that we are always perfect. None of us are, but the integrity that comes from a re-born soul comes from deep within. It is not done for show or to win 'brownie points' with others. It is there because it is part of our makeup as genuine children of God.

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law. And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit. Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.
(Gal 5:22-26)

These are not qualities that are in abundance in the so called Christians I have met, but this is the nature of deceit. A person who has been deceived does not know it. Once he knows it and refuses to change course, it is no longer simple deceit, but willful deceit which is the most dangerous form of rebellion. It is the willing acceptance of a lie in order to obfuscate a truth. This is why Christ is so harsh on liars and those that accept and support them. Every one that makes and loves a lie is going into the lake of fire. No Exceptions.

And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely. He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son. But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.
(Rev 21:6-8)

This is what real death is. When we humans think of death we just think of it as unconsciousness. Most humans do not equate death with being raised up and standing to give account for the things they have done. This is not death as they know it. Death in the biblical sense is complete and total separation from God. From light, love, pleasure, peace, and joy and the most psychologically devastating, hope. It is not, however the cessation of existence. Death is a place where none of those things exist. When we stand before God, we will give account, but we will find that God has also kept account. Unlike the accountants here on earth who cook the books, commit fraud and fudge the numbers, God's books perfectly reflect all acts done in the body, weather they be good or evil. Nothing is going to be missed, not one act of kindness, not one malicious thought.

The Good news is that Christ has already paid your penalty for every sin you have committed. There is no need for you to stand before the Judgment of the damned (the Great White Throne) and experience the second death. It must be stated here that this sterner and harsher side of God's character frankly is not emphasized enough by the Churches. Namely that there is a very harsh judgment coming to all men who do evil (that would be all of us) and for those who refuse the propitiation of those sins that is in Christ Jesus and Christ Jesus alone.

This is because all who sin are of the devil. Those that follow him and his spiritual rebels will share the same fate. They go into the place that will be the eternal testament to any other being who lifts up his eyes and thinks they can be as God and rebel against him. I have said this before and I will say it again. They will think twice before even considering it. This salvation thing is no joke and it is the most important decision anyone can make, bar none.

Do you follow after lies, vote for liars, sit in a pulpit where a psuedo gospel is preached? Be warned.

For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment; And spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly; And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrhah into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly; And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked: (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;) The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished: But chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. Presumptuous are they, selfwilled, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities. Whereas angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation against them before the Lord. But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption; And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while they feast with you; Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children:

(2Pe 2:4-14)

No one wants to hear this, least of all many of my regular readers. They want to hear more New World Order Fearmongering. Well, I am going to tell you what is going to happen to most of us. Most of those of us who follow Christ, will be hunted down and killed. Stop spending all of your time fighting the New World Order that is coming. God is allowing this to happen to try the souls of men one last time before he destroys the vast majority of the human race. The coming harsh persecution will include Christians in the West (that would be Europe and North America). So get it into your hearts; they are going to kill us! All the signs are there for anyone to see. It is already happening in a great many parts of the world. Most of you are simply not aware or have not put two and two together to figure out who the real prince of this world is and the spiritual reasons why this is happening. So take my word for it, if you are still safe and it has not come to you yet, I will tell you why: They just haven't gotten around to you yet.

Here is the problem with so many Christians. They still do not truly understand that they are living in hostile territory. They are trying to win the love of the world. But do not know that you cannot be a friend of this present age, its morality or any of this wicked ways and stay a child of God. It is not possible.

Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God. (Jas 4:4)

And here is where the modern American church has so greatly erred. They are out of touch with Christ, but fully in touch with the spirit of this age. There is more emphasis on trendiness than on holiness; worldly acceptance than the path of the cross. But once again, these are Biblical truths are neither taught nor obeyed in the American Church.

What is truth?

Pilate asked this question of Christ when he stood before him. What a pitiful testament to this man's spiritual state and to ancient Rome in general. Truth, in Rome was the power of the sword, and the ability to use violence to create 'truth'. This simple but typically Roman view was the universal truth of the times. Thus, Christ's message of God's truth was a revolutionary idea. It was not 'enforced with swords, but with love. This new idea was diametrically opposite of everything that Rome stood for; war, slavery, plunder, pride, arrogance, paganism and class warfare. Christ entered into the world and preached a new kingdom. This new kingdom's ideas have been used by governments of the middle ages quite imperfectly to rule over Europe. They used part of the Christian religion to create a 'Holy Roman Empire' but the foundation of their power still rested on what was essentially Roman law and customs. Those laws and customs remain today in the the nations of Europe and the America's. Bicameral legislatures are Roman in origin. A single leader to administer and essentially rule the nation (empire) is Roman.

Today governments in the west have a kind of hybrid system of government where Roman traditions coupled with a traditionally Christian worldview were the philosophical underpinnings of their societies. Yet what has happened in the west during the latter part of the 20th Century is that the Christian underpinnings have been largely jettisoned. Those that remain have been tainted by a psuedo-Christian world view that seeks to establish a Christian utopia here on earth, without Christ.

In order for any of these new psuedo Christian dogma's and doctrines to take root, somewhere along the way, basic Christian doctrine must be jettisoned or reinterpreted. This has happened in pulpit after pulpit. But it is not just these kinds of political doctrines that infect the Church. Another poison that deeply effects the Church is simple hate.

I want to share one of the most serious issue facing the Church with the exception of the open acceptance of Sodomy in many congregations, the open acceptance of divorce and remarriage⁹ and the Churches unholy relationship with the state (via its 501(c)3) status. It is the racial separation and racial hatred that still remains in the hearts of many so called Christians and still largely separates the Ameican Church into 'Black Churches', 'White Churches', 'Latino Churches' and 'Asian Churches'. The latter two in some exceptional occasions may have more to do with linguistic barriers than necessarily racial ones, but not the former. These Barriers in America are almost exclusively based on the racial hate that permeated so much of America from its inception. It was a Church that was based on class and race rather than Christ and Love. The same spirit remains today. Many Churches, especially some White ones, look down upon Blacks who visit their congregations. I know, I have seen it time and time again. An attractive White Couple visits the Church and the pastor comes out and speaks to them invites them to the pastors office. When an unattractive economically challenged Black one comes to visit. they are treated as though they were a leper and told quite clearly, not to return. I have seen it time and time again and know whereof I speak. Yet Christ commanded his followers differently.

Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and in all. Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering; Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye. And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness.

(Col 3:11-14)

So how can Churches divide themselves up on racial grounds when Christ gives us a different commandment? This is one of those 'little things' that people ignore that is of great concern to God and Christ. He is building a new Body based in his love and truth, not on worldly hate and racist pride. But no one wants to hear this. No one wants to actually do what God commands and this is the fundamental problem even in so called fundamentalist Churches. They talk the talk but they, by and large, do not walk the walk. For those of you who live in nations that are basically racially homogeneous, these things largely do not apply. However, like Ancient Rome, America has dozens of racial and ethnic groups that dwell within her borders. Paul's admonition to Romans was as relevant to the people of the Roman Churches as it is to the Churches of America. Racist hate, divisions and separation, must not enter into the temple of Christ. How can God be pleased with those who call themselves his (but probably aren't) that look down on another believer, treat them like dirt and still in some places tell those with a different skin color not to return.

These things ought not to be so, but they are. Did not Christ's Holy Apostle say that those who hate their brother are murderers and that no murderer has eternal life? Brothers and sisters, I am here to tell you, in the name of the LORD, that the spirit of murder stalks the American Church. It lurks deep in the hearts of her Church members and they, if they harbor this hate, no matter how many protestations that they make to the contrary, are not part of God's kingdom.

Love, genuine love, that is, is the mark of a true Christian. If you have not love you are wasting your time going to Church, because it is not going to save you. Only Christ can do that and that can only come with genuine repentance, regeneration, holiness and walking in the Spirit.

What is truth? I will give it to you straight. When God gave the Old Testament to the Jews of old, they messed things up badly. They wound up making God very, very angry and finally in God's holy rage, he cast them out of the land for two thousand years. They were persecuted, robbed, plundered and finally almost exterminated. This was all ordained and foretold by God¹⁰ for their gross evil. Today, Christians must take a hard look at the harshness of God to those who spurn his words and hold his commandments as though they were some kind of optional and petty thing. Let the Church take heed and tremble at God and his Holiness for God will not be mocked. We Gentiles need to get some perspective on exactly where we stand in Christ.

For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee. Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but toward thee, goodness, if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off. And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again. For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree? For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in.

Here is the truth. We Gentiles are expendable. God is most gracious and has extended the hand of love and fellowship to us we must take his hand and do the things that he says and take an example from what happened to Israel when she erred and not make the same mistakes. The God of heaven is merciful and good, but he can be angered and his wrath is most fierce.

Let none of us anger God with presumptuous sin and with hate for others that God has called to Salvation. Let us all cease utterly and completely making excuses for not obeying Gods commandments, no matter how out of step those commandments are to our "liberal" or 'conservative' mindsets. God is neither Liberal nor Conservative, He is God and the best thing Christians can do in America is to remove those labels and the psychological baggage that accompanies those to devilish political mindsets from their minds. I will tell you in all earnestness, they are serious impediments to true Christian living. Rather we should.

And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God. For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith.

(Rom 12:2-3)

If you want to enter into God's kingdom you must remove the thinking that is common among Americans. I cannot stress this enough, Modern Americanism and its culture are a disease. Our culture revels in the glorification of ignorance, greed, sexual immorality and murder. This disease has reached its terminal phase. The key for the Churches is to come out from under this system and its thinking before the disease takes the Churches down to hell with America, as it is likely to do if these words are not heeded and done so quickly.

He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still. And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be.

(Rev 22:11-12)

Amen. Even so, come Lord Jesus.

And that is the Truth!
